Williams Sparks Boston Comeback

By The Associated Press

Ted Williams wasn't just batting the breeze the other day when he said Boston Red Sox were ready to make their move in the American League pennant race. Red Sox are hot and Williams' bat is booming.

The Bostons have won five of their last seven—including a decision that put an end to Chicago's winning streak last week—and although they remain in fourth place, 8½ games back, they are turning on the heat.

It was Williams, lifting his average to .374, who touched off a two-run, two-out rally in the seventh inning Monday night as Red Sox clipped Washington 3-2. Ike Delock, the big man in Boston's bullpen, came through with another splendid relief job, giving up only a pop-fly double over the last four frames.

REDLEGS TAKE LEAD

In the only other American League game scheduled, the second-place White Sox scored seven unearned runs and backed into a 9-3 victory over Detroit, trimming Yankees' lead to 3½ games.

If Red Sox can stay hot, they could turn the American League flag chase into a race every bit as hectic as the National League scramble. Cincinnati leads the national at the moment after knocking Milwaukee Braves from the lead with a 2-1 decision Monday night. It was their eighth victory in 10 games.

New York Giants beat third-place Brooklyns 5-2 and Chicago Cubs beat fourth place St. Louis 6-3 in the only other games scheduled.

New York Giants beat third-place Brooklyn 5-2 and Chicago Cubs beat fourth place St. Louis 6-3 in the only other games scheduled.

A full slate of Sunday doubleheaders in the National League saw New York take Pittsburgh 3-2 and 7-6, with the second game halted by the curfew in the eighth; Chicago blank Milwaukee 7-0 and then lose the second 4-3, Philadelphia beat Brooklyn 7-4 before losing 4-1 and Cincinnati run over St. Louis 19-15 and 7-1.

FIVE SOX OVER .200

Sunday in the American Baltimore beat Boston 5-3 and Kansas City beat Detroit 4-3; while in doubleheaders New York took two from Washington 3-2 and 8-6 and Cleveland won twice over Chicago 7-6 and 6-1.

Saturday in the National the scores were New York 6 Pittsburgh 4, Brooklyn 10 Philadelphia 7, St. Louis 5, Cincinnati 2 and Milwaukee 4 Chicago 3. In the American, Washington 5 New York 1, Chicago 8 Cleveland 3, Boston 4 - 6 Baltimore 2 - 3, and Detroit 14 Kansas City 2.

Williams' double off relief loser Bud Byerly was followed by singles by Jackie Jensen and Jim Piersall to bring Sox from behind. Jensen (.320) is one of five Red Sox batting over .300 and he is .500 for his last 26 times at bat. Piersall has had only seven hits in his last 25 at bats, but has driven in nine runs—including two Monday night—in the Bosox' hot spell.
