Remember When

By The Canadian Press

Jess Willard won the world heavyweight boxing crown by knocking out Jack Johnson in the 26th round at Havana, 41 years ago. The giant Willard held the crown four years until he was beaten by Jack Dempsey in a savage fight that lasted only three rounds at Toledo, Ohio, in 1919.

UN Charges Communists With "Wanton Attack"

SEOUL (Reuters) — The United Nations Command today charged the Communists in Korea with "wantonly attacking" a South Korean defence post along the demarcation line.

The charge was made after South Korea earlier today said Communist troops, believed to be Chinese, crossed the armistice line Tuesday to attack the post 50 miles north of Seoul.

The 40-minute exchange of fire was the third attack of its kind in the area within 10 days, a South Korean spokesman said. He said there were no casualties.

In Tokyo, a spokesman for the United States Far East command said a confidential report on the incident had been received from the UN section of the military armistice commission which "pretty much" confirmed details of the clash given by the South Korean government.

Previous allegations of violation of the armistice which ended the Korean War have mainly concerned alleged intrusions by planes over the territories of North and South Korea.

The Communist North was divided from the non-Communist South under the armistice agreement, and a demilitarized zone was established. Both sides have since complained of hostile incidents in this zone.

Sunday Sports Issue Gloomy For Vancouver

VANCOUVER (CP) — Premier Bennett Tuesday put a complete damper on the possibility of Sunday sport for Vancouver this summer.

He indicated in a short statement that the provincial government was not prepared to take any action. Instead he placed the onus on the federal government at Ottawa.

Premier Bennett was queried on the issue as he received the keys to the new Pacific Great Eastern Railway offices.

He dodged all questions on what the provincial government was going to do about the Sunday sports issue.

All he said was: "The question is not a question of sport on Sunday because they play golf and other games now.

"It is only a question of whether Sunday should be commercialized.

"Those are legal matters at the present unless there is further legislation. The federal house could open up this act (The Lord's Day Act) and amend it at this session."

CYO To Stage Dance, Social

A belated Easter dance and box social will be held in the Annunciation school hall by the Catholic Youth organization Friday night with novelty spotlight dances and skits.

Arthur Murray will act as master of ceremonies while John Dumas, as auctioneer will raffle the box lunches.

Hundreds Dead After Cyclone

LOURENCO MARQUES, Mozambique (Reuters) — Hundreds of Africans are feared to have been killed in a cyclone which devastated part of northern Mozambique last week.

The township of Memba was reported to have been wiped out and over an area of 150 square miles not a single native hut was left standing.

VICTORIA

pointment with the president.

This little manoeuvre was typical of Mr. Pattullo. He was a stickler for etiquette in others, but when it got in his way he put it aside.

He was a man of defiance. Years ago one of his grandiose plans was to annex the Yukon Territory, where he had lived during the gold rush, to British Columbia. Old-timers in Dawson were blazing mad at this. They said that if "Duff" Pattullo ever again went there they'd hang him to the nearest tree. Mr. Pattullo promptly hired a plane and flew into Dawson.

He was a man of vision. He once said old-age pensions should be contributory and then paid to all, rich and poor alike. He was scoffed at as a dreamer — but that is what has come to pass in Canada.

Mr. Pattullo is now part of our political history, part of our growth — colorful part, and when the record is written years hence his will be an important chapter in the story that is British Columbia.
