DR. FRIEDMANN IN A CHILLY ATMOSPHERE.

This is a picture of the famous German scientist (in the centre) when he arrived in Toronto last week to make a second injection of the much flaunted tuberculosis cure into his Toronto patients. His last appearance here was like the welcoming of a great victor, the conquer of the dread white plague; this time the atmosphere of the reception was cold and critical. This is accounted for by the fact that in the meantime grave doubts have been thrown upon the merits of his so-called discovery by the leading scientists of the continent. On the left of the doctor is Dr. Divinelli, his new assistant; on the right his legal adviser, D. G. Arnold.

SUFFRAGETTE PLOT TO BURN LONDON DOWN

Elaborate Plan Discovered by Police to Fire Lumber Yards and Cut Wires.

London, May 8.—According to the Daily Mirror, the police have discovered an amazing suffragette plot to set London afire. They captured an elaborat written plan for setting fire to every large timber yard in London, also cutting all telephone wires in the vicinity of the yards with the idea of making it impossible to immediately summon the fire brigade. London is full of timber yards, many in the neighborhood of small dwelling houses. The chief timber storage areas are near the docks. Surrey commercial dock is the largest timber dock in the world, and in the season over three hundred acres of land and water are covered with timber.

CHINA'S PROTEST

Republic Will Follow Example of Japan as to Alien Land Bill.

Washington, May 8.—China is preparing to follow Japan in protesting against the California alien land bill. Ownership of lands in California by Chinese has diminished considerably within the last few years, but many Chinese land owners still are there, and it is with the purpose of protecting them against loss of their property that the Chinese government is contemplating a protest.

It was a cruel thing to say about a nice railroad whose chief aim was the speedy transportation of its passengers, but the conversation had turned to lightning expresses, and Wallace Irwin, the author, simply could not help it.

On the road in question, as Mr. Irwin related the story, a train stopped one day and the passengers were told that a cow had got on the track and had to be driven off.

Up the road a few miles farther the train stopped again, and once more the explanation was given that a cow was on the track. Two miles, perhaps of continuous going, and then came another stop. This time a passenger glanced wearily toward the end of the car.

"Mr. Conductor," he called out in yawnful accents, "could I speak to you a moment?"

"Certainly," answered the conductor, moving down the aisle, "what is it?"

"Do you really mean to say," returned the passenger, in a voice that was almost a sigh, "that we have caught up to that cow again?"

WANTS JIM JEFFRIES AS BOXING PARTNER

Gunboat Smith Wire an Invitation to ex-Champion Who Couldn't Come Back.

San Francisco, May 8.—In preparation for the twenty round bout scheduled for May 17, Jess Willard has no less than five men at his training quarters as sparring partners, while "Gunboat" Smith has so far been obliged to content himself with the services of only Bob Armstrong, but even this, say the fight fans, does not explain what moved the ex-sailor to send to Jim Jeffries this telegram:

"James J. Jeffries, Los Angeles—Do you want to come north and act as my sparring partner. Answer immediately."

And today they are wondering what Jeffries will say. For the Fourth of July it is possible the winner of the Smith-Willard fight may be matched with Luther McCarty.

To get right to the point, "Newsy" was married yesterday at Montreal. "Newsy" was joined in the bonds of matrimony with Miss Iona Gordon-Letters, of Montreal, at St. Agnes church, by Rev. JACK LONDON'S SCRAP

Butted Into Family Squabble as Peacemaker with Usual Results.

Santa Rosa, Cal., May 8.—"The Jars of a Family Squabble," or "Is a Peacemaker Always Welcome?"

This may be the title of the next bit of fiction by Jack London, noted author and traveler, who, with John J. Burns of San Francisco, a friend, must stand trial here next Monday on charges of assault and battery. B. H. Shepard, an employee of the London ranch at Glen Ellen, is the complaining witness.

London is said to have attempt to stop a row in the Shepard home and a free-for-all fight resulted.

McCarty Goes to Calgary.
