PHILPOTT

Surely, then, the most obvious way to strengthen the UN and so strengthen the hope of world peace is to bring in all the nations now kept outside.

The UN can never hope to work well so long as the real government of China, the most populous nation on earth, is kept out. But the same thing is true of other excluded nations, like Austria, Finland, Ireland, Spain, Italy, Japan—and I think above all—Switzerland.

The UN lacks the set-up to try to keep the peace by physical force. But it has proven itself a mighty mechanism for the mobilization of moral force. Admission of little nations like Switzerland and big nations like China would magnify the power for-good of UN.

Padres Take Angels 6-1 For 22nd Win

The San Diego express ran over Los Angeles, 6-1, Tuesday night as the Padres won their 22nd Pacific Coast League baseball game out of 23. This was the Padres' 12th straight victory.

The rest of the league shuffled around a bit. San Francisco downed Portland 8-2 to regain the first division. Hollywood, longtime cellar-dweller, defeated second-place Seattle, 6-1, and moved ahead of Sacramento which dropped a doubleheader to Oakland, 7-3 and 7-2.

Hollywood began the scoring at Seattle in the second. Bill Glynn's fourth-frame round-tripper provided the Rainiers' sole marker.

At Portland, Don Fracchia not only pitched the Seal victory but clouted a 3-run homer in the sixth. The Seals scored five times in that inning, sending Bill Werle to the showers.

Earl Rapp started the Padre scoring in the fourth and in the sixth, hit his 13th homer with Milt Smith aboard for his 60th run batted in in 50 games.

The Oaks won their first doubleheader of the year as the Solons lost their ninth consecutive contest. The home-town Oaks went wild in the sixth of the opener, tallying six times.
