TV Entertainers Strike To Back Re-Run Pay Bid

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The actors, singers and announcers who work on television's entertainment films have gone on strike and officials of the Screen Actors Guild said its members will not work on any filmed shows except those of producers who have signed new contracts.

Basic issue in the contract dispute is whether actors will get paid when films are re-run the second time.

Under the old contracts between the guild and the Alliance of Television Film Producers and the Association of Motion Picture Producers, actors got residual payments for the third to sixth showings of films.

The actors' group said the new contract, already signed by five of the producers, would provide actors with minimums increased from $70 to $82 for day players and from $250 to $287.50 for weekly free-lance players.

In addition, it would provide for payment of 75 per cent of the minimum salary for the second run of a TV film, 50 per cent for the third and fourth runs combined, 25 per cent for the fifth run and one final payment of 25 per cent covering the sixth and all subsequent runs.

Three of the companies signing with the guild did so Thursday—Lewislor Enterprises, Inc., which produces the Loretta Young Show; Lewman, Ltd., which produces the Jane Wyman Fireside Theatre, and Spectrum Film Productions, which makes short entertainment films.

Two other contracts signed previously were with producer Russ Hayden's Quintet Productions for filming of the Judge Roy Bean series, and with Charles E. Skinner productions, covering the Sergeant Preston of the Yukon series.

Most producers say they expect to feel few effects of the strike immediately, since most of the big film shows—including Dragnet, Burns and Allen, I Love Lucy and Medic — have most of their films for the season completed.

Weather Factor In Soccer Tilt

Shamrocks will meet Paramounts tonight at Roosevelt Park in a scheduled Manson Trophy soccer tilt, if the weather permits, Jack Laurie, Prince Rupert and District Football Association president said this morning. An executive meeting has been called tonight, place undesignated, as soon as the game is completed, Mr. Laurie said. Tomorrow Shamrocks will travel to Terrace as representatives of the city league for an exhibition game.

BLACK BASS TRICK

LARGE BASS OFTEN LURK IN A SLUGGISH COVE OR POOL THAT HAS A HEAVY COVER OF SURFACE MOSS. HOLES IN THE MOSS ARE YOUR TIP-OFF THAT A "LUNKER" MADE THEM AS IT GRABBED FROGS, ETC.

WORK YOUR BOAT TO WHERE A LONG ROD WILL OVERHANG THE HOLE, THEN STOP. WAIT A FEW MINUTES UNTIL SCARED FISH FORGET COMMOTION. RIG A FROG (IF LEGAL, IT'S BEST!) OR A BASS BUG AND DANGLE IT ON THE HOLE'S SURFACE. (A CANE POLE, 12' OR MORE, IS IDEAL. OTHERWISE, USE LONGEST ROD AVAILABLE.) USE A STRONG LEADER WITH A BAITCASTING REEL TO CONTROL FISH.

Scrappy Trend Seen Plan To Get "Ticket"

LONDON (AP)— Speculation is growing whether the Royal Navy might have a new type of incident on its hands—the hit-a-senior-officer-and-get-out-of-the-navy kind.

The admiralty announced that engineer mechanic John Stevens, 18, will face a court martial next week for having heaved his hat at Commodore Charles Evans of the Royal Navy barracks at Portsmouth.

Only last week, James McSporran was discharged from the navy and sentenced to two years in prison for assaulting a vice-admiral.

The two incidents recalled the rash of "malicious damage" cases in the senior service which were apparently snuffed out a few months ago.

Disgruntled ratings had been inflicting minor damage on equipment.
