Seven Choirs Take Part In Successful Festival

The second recital of the Fourth Annual Christmas Carol festival was received with enthusiasm by an audience of about 250 in the Civic Centre auditorium Saturday night.

Seven city choir groups took part in the program.

William Brown, vice-president of the Prince Rupert District Music and Drama Festival association, which sponsored the Carol Festival, opened the program and thanked members of the Rotary Club for arranging the seating and the ushering.

C. R. Roberts, executive member of the festival association, told the audience that the object of the Carol Festival "was to foster a love of music in the children of Prince Rupert." He appealed to the audience to take out memberships in the Music and Drama Festival association to help the fostering of the love of music.

The program presented was as follows, with the name of the choir leader in brackets:

Booth High School Choir (Jessie Proctor) "O Come All Ye Faithful," "We Three Kings," which featured three boy soloists unaccompanied, "See Amid the Winter Snow" and "Silent Night."

Junior Chorus (Phyllis Hankinson) "Waking Time" a French Nativity Carol, and "How Far is Bethlehem," an English Nativity Carol.

Annunciation School Choir (Father H. E. Tunney) "Come to the Manger" and "When Christ Is Born," a Polish carol.

Presbyterian Girls Choir (Mrs. E. J. Smith) "Long Ago" with Miss Mary Taylor as soloist and "All This Night Bright Angels Sing."

United Church Junior Choir (Phyllis Hankinson) "God Bless the Little Things" and "Bells of Christmas."

Anglican Church Choir (Peter Llen) "Joyous Christmas Song," a Norse Carol, and "Cherubim Song."

The Rotary Chorus (C. P. Balagno) rounded off the program with several hymns and carols, "Beautiful Saviour," "Carol of the Bells," "Behold That Star" a spiritual, and a medley of Christmas hymns, "O Come O Come Emmanuel," "O Little Town of Bethlehem" and "Silent Night."

The program was followed by community singing of well known carols, led by the Rotary Chorus.
