Outstanding native carvings a big feature of Haidas

tem poles made by the Haidas. | ized moulded material. | The real Haida craft is an an-These glistening black totem | Since they sell for much less cient one, dating from the days

Haidas young and old and sell for as much as $15 an inch. Several Prince Rupert stores which buy direct from the carv- British Columbia is Lakelse hot- HAVE OWN STYLE a mountain quarry high up supplied by nature, clear, hot included dishes and candlehold-Slatechuck Creek on the Queen mineral waters with a daily flow ers, sometimes inlaid with aba-Charlotte Islands. The quarry over more than 150,000 gallons lone shell. However, today the In recent years a number of mineral spring areas.

608 - 3rd Ave. W.

Ørince Rupert Daily News Ltd. Friday, April 26, 1963

Welcome Friends!

at the Broadway.

For the finest dining in town visit

The Broadway Cate

PRINCE RUPERT, B.C.

The most outstanding genuine manufacturers elsewhere in than the genuine product these native artifacts on the tourist British Columbia have been imitation poles have been maktrade scene in Prince Rupert are turning out imitation argillite ing big inreads into the tradiargillite or slate carvings of to-poles. These are made of pulver-tional Haida markets.

Let us help to make your stay in Prince

Rupert a memorable one. Fine food, expertly served in congenial surroundings . . .

THE BAMBOO ROOM

. . a year to be remembered

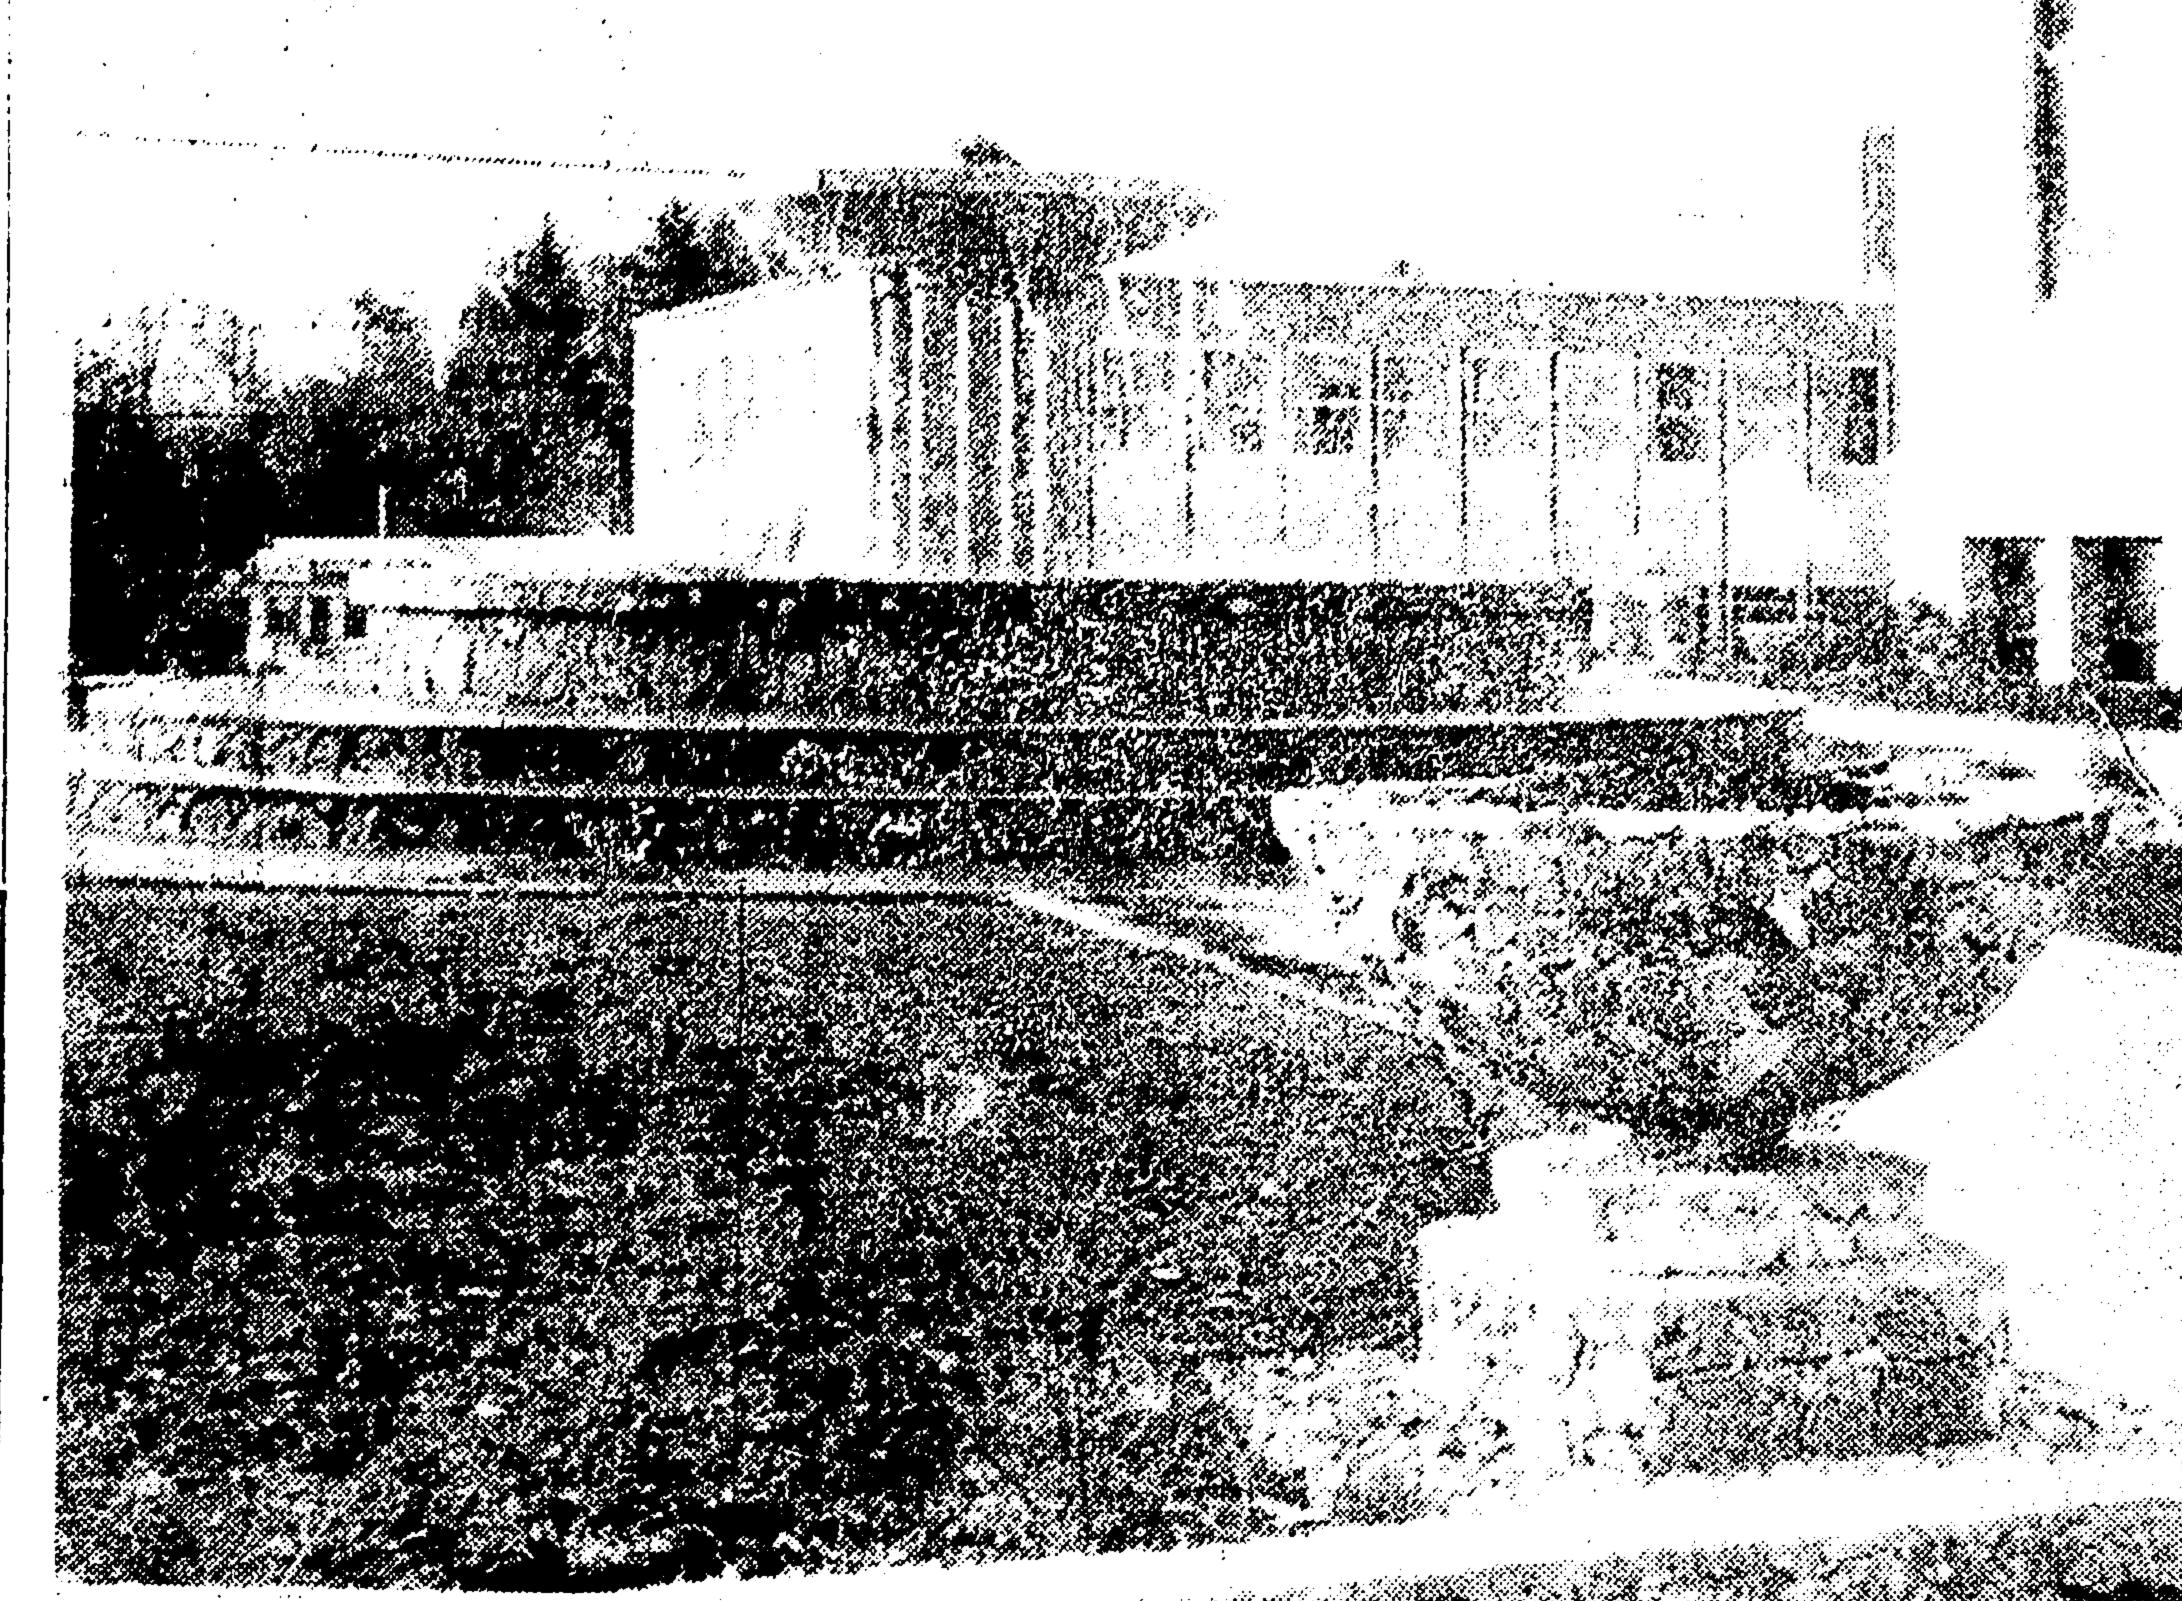

terminus.

highly polished, are fashioned by LAKELSE HOTSPRINGS from such famous craftsmen as from such famous craftsmen as One of the big features that Chief Edensaw formed the should be visited in this part of world's great collections.

ers, have these poles on sale. springs only 22 miles from the Each notable carver developed BELONG TO HAIDAS

Aluminum City of Kitimat. The his own style as he carved his The argillate itself comes from resort's two swimming pools are totemic emblems. Early work: belongs exclusively to the Haidas. from one of the largest known Haida carvers concentrate on totem poles anywhere from four to 14 inches high, and occasionally medalions which make unusual and attractive pendants

Phone 4332

FOUNTAIN SQUARE ENHANCES CITY CENTRE

Appearance of Prince Ru- fountain surrounded by attrac- ground, and the present post pert's city centre has been enhanced by construction of a fountain square — Jubilee plaza — a gift from the Italo-Canadian Club featuring a gilt tive masonry and giant stonework flower bowls. Circular contours provide pleasant contrast to the straight lines of the new federal building, backoffice which will become new city hall. Landscaping plans will further improve this civic

Prince Rupert is unique in more ways than one merce booklet. Tsimpsean, Haida and other na-, all-native brass band plays Cho- war. tive peoples of the northwest. pin's Funeral March to a slow Prince Rupert's far westerly RABID FANS ticularly basketball. All the na- nity. tive outlying settlements such as PREFER CLIMATE

There are a lot of things about katla, have their hoop teams. pared by world travellers with Prince Rupert that make this Should a visitor happen to be sunsets east of Aden. seacoast city unique in Canada. in Prince Rupert when a funeral MUCH FOR PHOTOS And you won't find many of is being held for a prominent. On a fine summer evening its unusual aspects in any tour-member of one of the district you'll see photography fans lined ist guide or Chamber of Com-tribes, he will see something up clicking color camera shutquite unusual in North America, ters at Roosevelt Park overlook-For one thing, Prince Rupert Cars with mourners form a ing the harbor, Roosevelt Park, has the highest percentage of cortege that extends for blocks by the way, with its public trailnative Indians of any urban along the city's main street, er grounds, was named for U.S. community in Canada. One in Third Avenue. Other traffic President Franklin D. Roosevelt every 12 of the city's residents comes to a standstill, and on-because of the American troops: is Indian, descended from the lookers stand silently while an stationed there during the last march. For a half hour the In- position has endowed it with They are rabid participants dian asserts his right to honor long hours of daylight in sumand fans of organized sport, par- his dead in impressive solem- mer. You can read a newspaper outdoors at 11 p.m. in late June.

Prince Rupert is not only the -Kincilith, Kitkatla, and Metla- Prince Rupert gets a heavy stepping stone to Alaska via the annual rainfall (107 inches last new Alaska state operated Mayear), and gales, but most resi-rine Highway ferry system, but dents of long standing prefer also the jumping off point for! their soft, mild and almost snow-the Queen Charlotte Islands, free climate to harsher weather most westerly Canada, a hundof the British Columbia interior, red miles away.

Subtle colors that the eye takes! Fringed by sweeping beaches! a while to grow accustomed to, on their east coast, the Charcan be found in the landscape. lottes are the home of the proud! On the other hand, the glori-smiling Haidas whose civilizaous sunsets that glow over Prince tion lies in ruins in a score of Rupert's deep sheltered harbor villages on Graham and Moresstrike the beholder with a tre- by Islands, the two main islands. mendous impact These techni- The Charlottes can be reached color spectacles which cast pur- by boat and both regular and ple and mauve reflections onto charter plane service from Prince harbor waters, have been com-Rupert. It has the potential -only time will tell

Prince Rupert owes its exist- Fur traders, prospectors and ence to one of the last great fishing interests came along, railway dreams of the 19th cen- and then there was political today follows much of Highway trans - continental line took; 16 along the Skeena River into shape. The Grand Trunk Pacific Prince Rupert, and the land Railway, a brain child of Grand' boom that resulted, inspired vi- Trunk's general manager Charsions of Prince Rupert as the les M. Hays, obtained the sponsecond Canadian gateway to the sorship of Prime Minister Sir Orient, the rival of Vancouver, Wilfred Laurier.

British Columbia. Although the dreams of a trans - continental railway to t great scaport did not materialize compete with the Canadian Pain the early years of this cen- cific Railway, with Prince Rutury, Prince Rupert did become pert as its western terminus to! defence during the Second cause of its position 500 miles, World War, and its hopes for the closer to Far East ports. future are especially bright now. Actual location of the terminus as trade increases with Japan city on Kaien Island was deter-and China. Prince Rupert looks to the sub-Trunk Pacific bought 10,000 stantial increase in volume in acres of land from the provincial tourist traffic and freight with government for $1 an acre. its northern neighbor cities in Railway construction began,

The Skeena River's mouth, and docks built. Official townof its discovery when Joseph following year. tain Vancouver's survey of the of wilderness, and everything Pacific Cdast in 1792, found looked bright until 1912 when himself "opposed by a very rapid Hays lost his life in the sinking stream against which boats could of the Titanic. scarcely make any way."

Our main industries

Prince Rupert, with a popula- of Prince Rupert is remembered tion of approximately 12,500, is in street names. (supported mainly by the fishing, strategically, people say,

The coming of the railway that way. In 1902 plans for a second

Hays proposed to build a booming centre for western snatch Vancouver's business be-mined in 1904 by a spectacular More immediately, however, real estate operation. The Grand and the townsite was cleared of course, had been a focal point site was established in 1909 and for trade almost from the day the city was incorporated the Whidbey, chief officer on Cap- A town had been created out

> While there has been much speculation on what might have , happened had he lived to see his dreams come to fulfilment, certainly the inspiration for this great scaport died with him.

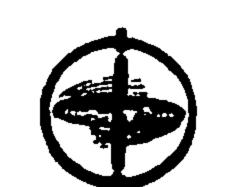

Today his role in the founding!

pulp and lumbering industries Prince Rupert has everything Prince Rupert's harbor is rated for the fulfillment of Hays' great as being one of the world's fin-expectations. Each year the dest. The last few years have seen number of deepsea ships weighextensive deepsea shipments of ing anchor at Prince Rupert ingrain and lumber to foreign creases, and its importance as) a port is heightening in stature.

PRINCE RUPERT

--- CLUBS and ORGANIZATIONS ----

GYRO CLUB

BOB RUDDERHAM President

RALPH SMITH Secretary

Meets every Tuesday 1 p.m. — La Gondola Cafe

Sons of Norway Vinland Lodge 119 - 5th Ave. E.

HENRIK INGVALLSEN SOPHIA GISKE President

Secretary

Business Meeting: 2nd Monday of each month. Social Meeting: Every 4th Friday of each month

ELKS LODGE

JOHN CONNOR

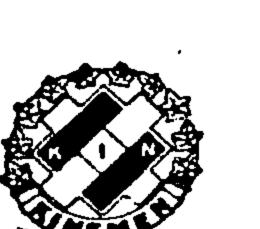

Exalted Ruler

N. A. PAVILIKIS Secretary-Treasurer

Meetings at Elk's Home

312 - 3rd Ave. W. every 2nd and 4th Mondays each month.

KINSMEN CLUB of PRINCE RUPERT

DON CAMERON

AL SHEPPARD

President Secretary Meetings on: 1st and 3rd Wed. each month at Prince Rupert Hotel

VISITING KINSMEN WELCOME

Kiwanis Club of Prince Rupert

GERRY SHERMAN President

CHARLES MAYO

Secretary

Meets Broadway Cafe each Wednesday 6:30 p.m.

ROTARY CLUB

A. H. OGILVIE President

WILL HANKINSON Secretary

Meets every Thursday 1:30 p.m. - Broadway Cafe

LOYAL ORDER OF MOOSE

Prince Rupert Lodge No. 1051

P.O. Box 344

PRINCE RUPERT, B.C.

ETT COLUMN LODGE MEETS FIRST and THIRD TUESDAYS Lounge open 8:30 p.m. to 12 p.m. Mondays to Saturdasy

When in Prince Rupert

-Northern B.C. Power COMPANY LIMITED

PRINCE RUPERT

STEWART, B.C.

The year 1963 will always be remembered as a year of tremendous development in the Pacific Northwest area. Main event of this expansion is the inauguration of the Alaska Marine Ferry System of which Prince Rupert is the southern ited wishes to extend congratulations and best wishes to the Alaska Marine Ferries and to all persons and firms responsible for it's development. We now look forward to an even brighter economic future

for the whole of Northern British Colum-

Northern B.C. Power Company Lim-