Record Salmon

SEATTLE (AP) — A record 70-pound king salmon, said to be the largest ever caught by a sports fisherman in Washington waters, was boated in Puget Sound Tuesday by a woman.

The mighty king was hooked by Mrs. Howard E. Little, 31, Seattle, off Hope Island near the mouth of the Skagit River and landed in after a half-hour struggle.

Military Exports

OSLO (AP) — Fifty-two officers and civilians attending the NATO Defence College at Paris, accompanied by 17 instructors, have been on a study tour of Norway.

HEART THROB—Little Billy Roe, 3, couldn't resist kissing this cute calf when he saw the heart-shaped mark on its head. The lovable animal was spotted by Billy during a tour of Miami dairies conducted by the Dairy Council of South Florida, sponsors of "June is Dairy Month."

"NO MONKEY BUSINESS, NOW!"—Mickey, the monkey, checks the soft nose of his pal, Newport Dream, as Del Cameron, trainer-driver of the sleek colt, stands in on the get-together. Winner of 20 out of 22 starts last year, Newport Dream is the "dream" of owner Octave Blake, who has entered the trotter in the $115,000 Hambletonian Stake at Good Time Park, Goshen, N.Y., on August 14.

Red Cross Gamma Globulin Project Given Federal Financial Support

OTTAWA (CP)—The health department has announced approval of "substantial grants" under the national health program to assist the Canadian Red Cross in collecting blood for gamma globulin, used in combatting poliomyelitis. The amount of the grants was not disclosed.
