B.C. Business Feels Budget "Timed" Step

VANCOUVER (CP) — Cautious approval was expressed by businessmen here Tuesday night after studying Finance Minister Harris' first budget.

B.C. labor leader Tom Alsbury said the budget was "not much comfort to the small wage earner."

Howard N. Walters, president of the Vancouver Board of Trade said the budget was a definite stimulant to further expansion.

Personal, excise and corporation tax reductions were made with the intention of stimulating production, he said.

Clarke Simpkins, one of the city's major car dealers, said the cut on excise taxes on cars was a "timid" step in the right direction.

"The industry has been trying to get the excise tax cut since the end of the war," he said. "While this first one is worthwhile, it is certainly not big as far as the average car buyer is concerned."

C. D. Hobbs, president of Western Canada Steel Co. in Vancouver, hailed the government's announcement that the tariff board will conduct an inquiry into the primary iron and steel industry.

The government action could be the first move in preventing the industry from unfair competition from Europe and Japan.

Fall From Boat Proves Fatal

ALERT BAY, B.C. (CP) — John Lovecque, 31, Monday was believed to have drowned when he fell overboard from his motorboat Sunday night.

Lovecque's boat was being towed to a logging camp near the mouth of Knight Inlet from Minstrel Island when he fell overboard. The crew of the tow boat heard Lovecque shout for help, but an all-night search by the tow boat and an RCAF plane Monday morning failed to find any trace of the man.

LONG SERVICE

ALLISTON, Ont. (CP) — Joseph Hipwell, 91-year-old druggist, has retired after 60 years service as a Bell Telephone Company agent. In his telephone capacity he noted Alliston, 25 miles southwest of Barrie, now has more than 1,000 telephone subscribers. There were four telephones here when he took the agency.

Cancer is not contagious. It can appear at any age, but is most common with older people.
