If they do as well in their two performances as they did

A big catch of trout proved costly to two Prince Rupert men Saturday when they appeared before Magistrate E. T. Applewhaite.

The men, Otto Schuhknecht and Victor Wittchen, were found; with 93 trout in their possession near Dragon Lake.

They had been fishing only one day. The limit of trout per fisherman per day is 12. Magistrate Applewhaite fined each man $25 and costs.

Gospel teams visit church

Two visitations, one in mid-May and the other June 2, have been made to the Port Edward Mennonite Brethren church.

A five-man gospel team visited the church in May. The speaker of the team became ill, however, and the male quartet sang and preached for the evening.

Early this month a group came from the Mennonite Bible Institute in Clearbrook. group consisted of a female trio, a male quartet and a speaker, Rev. Abe. Klassen
