City Scouts To Sitka On Monday

Don Murray and John Martin, two Prince Rupert Boy Scouts who were named recently by the District Boy Scout committee to attend a Boy Scout camp near Sitka, June 26th to July 2nd, will leave for Alaska Monday, District Boy Scout Commissioner John M. Robertson said today.

The lucky boys will fly to Juneau by Ellis Airlines, and then complete their journey to Sitka by U. S. Coastguard plane.

"It had been hoped that two boys from Sitka might be able to attend the Prince Rupert district camp at Lakelse Lake June 30 to July 8, but it appears unlikely that they will be able to come," District Commissioner Robertson said.

Don, who is affiliated with the 2nd Prince Rupert (Conrad Street) Troop, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. Murray, 1140 Hays Cove Avenue, while John is in the 4th Prince Rupert (United Church) Troop and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Martin, 1702 Atlin Avenue.

Two boys were selected from each local troop and the names of the finalists drawn from a hat.

Booth Principal R.H. Davidson Given Farewell Party by Staff

R. H. Davidson, principal of Booth Memorial High School, was honored by his staff last night at a surprise farewell party in the Wrens' Mess at HMCS Chatham.

J. M. Evans, acting vice-principal of the school, presented Mr. Davidson with a French 400-day clock and "an average Prince Rupert raindrop"—a glass fishing float mounted on a piece of wood.

Mr. Evans, who is also leaving the district, was presented with a desk pen set by Miss Eva Cavalier.

PERSONALS

Miss Eleanor Walker, 114 Ninth Street, left this morning by Canadian Pacific Airlines plane for a two-month holiday in Vancouver and New Westminster.

Odd Fellows, Rebekahs Honor Memory of Deceased Members

Members of Prince Rupert Lodge No. 63, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, and Centennial Rebekah Lodge No. 40, met Tuesday night at the Valhalla hall to honor the memory of deceased members of both lodges, in their annual joint memorial service, marked by lodges, all over the world.

Mrs. Harold Paulson, Rebekah Noble Grand, conducted the solemn rites which saw white-robed Rebekahs place flowers before a cross as the roll call of 36 past members was read.

Mrs. Joseph Delorme was soloist during the ceremony and J. L. McIntosh read the scriptural passages.

Following the memorial service Mr. McIntosh presented a 50-year jewel to L. C. Eby, who first joined the IOOF in Southampton, Ontario, transferring to the Prince Rupert lodge in 1917.

At the Odd Fellows' regular meeting preceding the joint session, V. P. Dexter reported on the recent grand lodge of British Columbia sessions held in Chilliwack.

It was announced that James Hadden has been appointed district deputy grand master, with jurisdiction over the Prince Rupert-Terrace-Smithers district.

Following the sessions, a social hour was enjoyed with refreshments served by the men, headed by N. G. McGlashan.

Whist Winners

Mrs. A. E. Norton and John McNaughton last night won the women's first and men's first whist prizes when the Sons of Norway lodge held its annual summer dance and whist drive in the SON Hall.

Other winners were Mrs. H. F. Glassey, taking women's second and pool while John Pedersen took men's second and pool prizes.

General convener was Mrs. Otto Breimo, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Pedersen, Mrs. Alf. Jensen, Mr. and Mrs. John Fredheim and Mr. McNaughton.

Refreshments and dancing concluded the successful event.

Missionary Society Life Membership Pin Presented to Departing Minister's Wife

Mrs. L. G. Sieber, president of the Woman's Missionary Society of the First United church, Monday night was presented with a life membership pin and certificate to highlight the group's regular meeting held at the home of Mrs. E. R. Foster. Mrs. R. W. Large made the presentation.

Mrs. Sieber, who leaves with her husband, Rev. Sieber and their four children June 30, for Mission City, where Mr. Sieber has been appointed minister of the St. Andrew's church, was wished best wishes in her new home.

On behalf of the members, Mrs. Andrew Thompson expressed the appreciation for the devoted leadership of Mrs. Sieber.

The worship period, the theme of which was "Discipleship," was conducted by Mrs. Sieber and Miss Joyce Facey.

Program, culminating a study of the book, "No Vanishing Race," was in charge of Mrs. Keith Faught and Mrs. Alice McComb. Mrs. Large assisted at the piano.

At the conclusion of the ceremony, honoring Mrs. Sieber, refreshments were served by the hostess.
