OUTSTANDING WORK

The Soroptimists form an international service club with branches all over the world, and membership is drawn from the ranks of women in professions and business. In all areas of service it has done outstanding work. As an international group Soroptimists helped to clear the refugee camp of Hoettingerau in Austria, and now 140 refugees are settled in homes through their help.

The Western Canada region has 29 clubs with 800 members.
