Judges were Mrs. H. G. Bird, F. E. Dowdie, and R. G. Moore. BIG TRIP

As his award Allan will spend four days in Ottawa visiting the House of Commons and such places as Government House,! the Supreme Court, the National Research Council, and the Royal Mint. He will be addressed by prominent Canadian speakers and will be having a series of Caily group discussions with other students from across Canada who have won similar awards.

There will be a study of the National Capital Plan prepared by the National Capital Comission and a formal presentation | of a certificate of Canadian Citizenship.

ATTRACT IMMIGRANTS For his topic on "Canadian" Citizenship," Kangas told Rotarians that the rights and priviléges of a Canadian citizen are perhaps the biggest attractions which persuade people to leave their native lands and make their homes here. He went on to tell who may
