Appointments Made on Merit Bennett Claims

VICTORIA (CP) — Premier Bennett said this week all appointments to the civil service are based on merit.

The premier was replying to a charge by Liberal Leader Arthur Laing that all defeated Social Credit candidates got government appointments.

Mr. Laing mentioned specifically the case of former Social Credit Victoria member of the Legislature Percy Wright who stepped down in favor of the then finance minister Einar Gunderson and who later was appointed secretary to the assessment Equalization Commission.

"It's easy to see that all the Liberals understand is patronage," the premier said. "I don't see any mention made of the senators. It's news when a Social Crediter gets a job but it wasn't news when people got jobs under the Liberal machine."
