Drawings by Rembrandt To Be Shown Next Week

An art exhibit of Rembrandt drawings and etchings from the Netherlands and "silk screen prints" by Sister Marie Corta of Los Angeles is now hanging in the Booth Memorial High school activity room, it was announced today.

The exhibit, which arrived Monday and is sponsored by the Prince Rupert Art club, will be open to the public next Thursday and Friday afternoon and evenings. Included in the public will be works of local paintings and drawings, a club spokesman said today.

Eager Hunters

HALIFAX (CP)—An average of $53.75 was paid for rifles confiscated by police in the past year when eager hunters attended a provincial auction here recently. Bids ranged from $17 for converted military weapons to $108 for a sleek high-power rifle with telescopic sights.

MRS. Eleanor Roosevelt displays the "Alfred the Beefeater" doll that won grand prize for 16-year-old Nancy Shieber of Bucyrus, Ohio, at the recent national judging of the sixth annual Seventeen Magazine Christmas Doll contest.

PEI Judge To Speak Here Monday Night

"On Being A Canadian" will be the subject of Judge G. W. McPhee, former member of the Prince Edward Island Legislature, subsequently member in the House of Commons, when he speaks to the Prince Rupert Canadian club Monday night in the Civic Centre.

The second of three speakers booked here during the 1956-57 season, Judge McPhee was born in Prince Edward Island and educated at Prince of Wales College, Charlottetown.

He practiced law for years in Yorkton, Sask., and was elected MP for that constituency for several terms and was appointed District Court Judge in Moose Jaw, Saskatchewan in 1940 from which he retired last November.

F. J. Workman, editor of the Moose Jaw Daily Times-Herald writes, "Judge McPhee is one of the most inspiring after-dinner speakers that I as a newspaper man of nearly 50 years experience have heard. On the theme of what it is to be a Canadian he is truly excellent.

"Although past 75 years, Judge McPhee is vigorous, has a memory that is most remarkable and his flow of language is unequalled by few speakers whom I have heard."

Judge McPhee is a past president of the Canadian club of Moose Jaw.

Little Theatre News . . . . and Views

By CONNIE CHASTNEY

What a pleasant surprise to discover that so many of you are interested in drama and stagework. I want to thank those who took the trouble to phone me and to come down to the Civic Centre and see me and inquire about Little Theatre. You are welcome to drop down to the Centre any evening and make any further inquiries. I will be only too glad to answer any questions you may have to ask. Any Wednesday evening you will find Little Theatre busy rehearsing in one of the various rooms at the Centre. Rehearsals are usually held between 7:30 and 10:30 p.m. The girl at the desk will be only too happy to tell you where they may be found. Also, if any of you are interested in sewing or backstage work, come along and let us know. Your help will be greatly appreciated, as "Burlesque" will require some costume designing. If any of you have any old flapper dresses kicking around the house that you would care to loan to the Little Theatre, we will be most grateful.

With "The Major's Mistake" getting the final polishing touches for Saturday's performance, that's tomorrow night, don't forget, we are swinging right along with rehearsals for Burlesque.

I am happy to be able to tell that the production is rapidly moving on. The cast features Bev Hemphill and Bill Evans in the leading roles of Bonnie and Skid who argue their way through the various scenes. Skid is an irresponsible but nevertheless likeable chap who is forever getting into some sort of trouble and relies on Bonnie, his sweet, but "wise to ways of the world" wife to get him out of these various predicaments which she does with calmness and matter of fact suggestions. The loyalty of their friends never falters in these scrapes and arguments. The choreography is under the expert direction of Buddy Taft. So, for laughter, tears, dancing and pretty girls, be sure and reserve a night to see "Burlesque."

Meanwhile, don't forget tomorrow night, three one-act plays, at the Civic Centre. Tickets will be available at the door. Mystery, laughter, drama, all in one night . . . so, be seeing you . . . till next week . . . 'Bye for now.

30 Registered For CLC Course

Thirty delegates from unions all over the city have registered to take part in the Canadian Labor Congress education course which gets underway tonight at 8 o'clock in the Civic Centre. The course will be held for two days.

Instructors will be: CLC educational director for British Columbia, T. C. Gooderham and David Wade from the Retail and Wholesale Workers Union in Vancouver.

The course will include: Parliamentary procedure and effective union administration; labor's role in community affairs, and grievance procedure.

PRECIOUS STRUCTURE

AGRA, India (Reuters)— The archaeological department of Agra has protested to airport authorities against planes flying over the Taj Mahal. Some planes have been breaking the law which prohibits flying over the marble mausoleum whose structure might be damaged by vibrations caused by low-flying aircraft.

SPEEDY JUNKS

HONG KONG (Reuters) — Communist China soon will have her first fleet of motorized junks. Fifty-four of them are being built for fishing. The New China News Agency said some motorized junks, built in the traditional shape and also carrying sails, already are bringing in fish twice as fast as sailing junks.

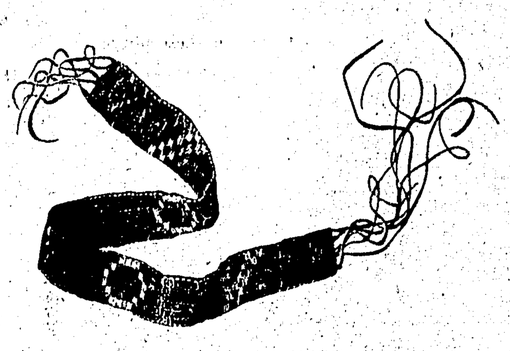
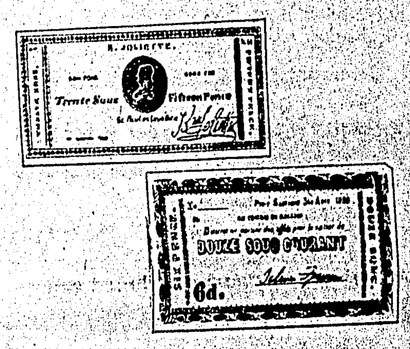
Money is so fascinating!



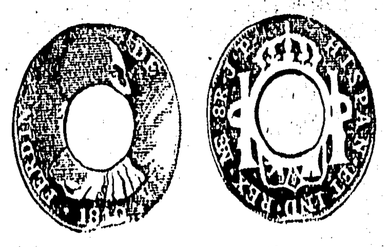
WAMPUM Beads made from sea shells and strung in belts. Used as currency by the Indians and considered legal tender in the North American colonies until 1670. You can't make whoopee with this stuff any more.

PLAYING CARD MONEY First distributed in Canada in 1658 because of the scarcity of regular currency, but used widely for some 75 years. Ingenious—wasn't it?

LACHINE CANAL RAILWAY TOKENS Tokens used by workmen on the Lachine Canal for third class travel on the Lachine and Montreal Railroad Company.



BONS Abbreviation of "bon pour" or "good for", issued by merchants to meet the need for small change. Widely used in the early 1800's.



P.E.I. HOLEY DOLLAR Originally a large Spanish silver coin in common use in Eastern Canada. Because of the shortage of coin in Prince Edward Island, the centres were punched out—the centres passing for a shilling and the outer rim for $5. Clever, but we doubt if it would work now.

HUDSON'S BAY TOKENS Brass tokens designed in 1854, and used as the unit of currency in the fur trade for many years. One "Made-Beaver" was equal in value to an adult male beaver skin in prime condition.
