Lutheran Missionary Tea Proves Successful Affair

The St. Paul's Lutheran church hall yesterday afternoon was the scene of a most successful Valentine tea and sale of home cooking staged by the Women's Missionary Federation of St. Paul's Lutheran church.

President, Mrs. Melvin Hetland and Mrs. Arthur Olson, wife of Rev. A. S. Olson, pastor of the church, received the guests in the hall, which was decorated with garlands of pussy willows and tiny hearts, made and arranged by Mrs. Olson and her mother, Mrs. Arvid Wickstrom, of Admiral, Saskatchewan, who is presently visiting here.

Serving at the individual tea tables, centred with tiny bouquets of pussy willows, surrounded by hearts, were Mrs. Harold Holland, Mrs. Peter Brookfield, Mrs. Anton Martinusen, Mrs. Lars Olson and Mrs. John Pederson.

Mrs. George Fowlie, Mrs. Andrew Fossheim and Mrs. Jack Strand were in charge of the home cooking table.

Directing the kitchen was Mrs. Richard Giske assisted by Mrs. Lars Nelson, Mrs. John Wick, Mrs. Gustav Mostad and Mrs. Arne Husoy.

Mrs. Bernhof Pedersen was cashier.

Sales of WA Cook Book Realize $1,028 So Far

One thousand and twenty-eight dollars has already been raised from the sale of 514 "Totem Cook Books" Mrs. Richard Ayres, president of the Women's Auxiliary to the Prince Rupert General Hospital reported last night at the auxiliary's monthly meeting in the Civic Centre.

The cook books were published by the auxiliary last October as a means of raising funds to buy more technical equipment for the hospital.

In other business the meeting decided to purchase a record player and amplifier system for the children's wards. It will be controlled from the nurse's station.

Plans were made for a rummage sale to be held April 7 while tentative plans were discussed to sponsor a plant stall at the Civic Centre "Potpourri", expected to be staged in April and a "Hospital Day" tea in May.

Mrs. Sidney Elkins, convener of knitting and sewing, reported that sales from the "babies-wear display case" had made a profit of more than $80 during the past year.

New member, Mrs. J. M. Skellern was accepted and welcomed.

Refreshments concluded the meeting.

Director Of Nursing Honored

Director of nursing at the Prince Rupert General Hospital since 1950, Miss Elizabeth L. Clement RN, was honored last night with a surprise party when 15 members of the Registered Nurses Association of Prince Rupert gathered at the home of Mrs. Arthur Ogilvie.

At the affair the guest of honor received a presentation of a steam iron, made by the local chapter and an original totem cup and saucer, given from the district chapter, which includes Prince Rupert, Terrace and Miller Bay Chapters.

Miss Clement was praised for her hard and enthusiastic work in the association, where she held the post of vice-president for two years and also was a councillor for the RNA of British Columbia with headquarters in Vancouver, for a period of two years. She was also president of the RN District Association.

At its last monthly meeting the association expressed its regret at receiving Miss Clement's letter of resignation from the local group. She leaves her post here as director of nursing of the hospital on February 21.

New Members Introduced At Rotary Club

Two new members were introduced into the Prince Rupert Rotary Club yesterday when the club held its regular luncheon meeting in the Broadway cafe.

Introduced were Charles W. Young, general agent for the Canadian Pacific Steamships, B.C. Coast, and E. W. (Bill) Brown, district freight agent for Canadian National Railways.

J. B. Burns, past president of the Prince Rupert Aero Club, gave a very interesting talk on flying clubs, outlining the great part clubs have and are playing in the development of aviation in Canada.

Mr. Burns said it was particularly impressive to note the success, growth and approved status the Prince Rupert Aero Club has had since its inception here in 1946.

AS ANY HOUSEWIFE knows, it's the final taste that counts with fish chowder, whether its made with clams or codfish. Here Canadian National Railways Chef Instructor Joseph F. Nellis samples a chowder that uses butter instead of pork and is a favorite with travellers during Lent.

Fish Chowder, Rice Casserole Popular Recipes During Lent

Special to The Daily News

MONTREAL — A fish chowder that uses butter instead of pork is an ideal dish for Lent, and the recipe used by dining car chefs of the Canadian National Railways is sufficiently versatile to be made with all varieties of fish during the 40-day Lenten period which started Wednesday.

Simple to make, the recipe utilizes the stock from the fish itself and saves all the frying of salt pork and boiling of fish bones.

The recipe supplied by CNR Chef Instructor Joseph F. Nellis uses haddock, but housewives can easily substitute clams, codfish or any other family favourite.

The ingredients are:

1 lb. haddock fillet cut in small pieces
1 large potato diced
1 medium sized onion diced
¼ teaspoon nutmeg
¼ lb. butter
1 pint milk

Saute onions in butter but do not brown. Add potatoes, cover with water and cook about 10 minutes till potatoes are tender. Add the fish and continue cooking another 10 minutes. Then add the hot milk, with dashes of nutmeg, salt and pepper.

A can of tomato juice may be added if desired. Finish with a little chopped parsley and serve. There will be enough for six.

Chef Nell's also finds that rice and mushroom casserole is a highly popular meatless dish.

Since rice makes up the bulk of the dish, and mushrooms are always available, it is economical to produce. The mushrooms combined with butter and tomato juice produce a thick brown sauce which can be served attractively with the rice in individual casseroles.

And if you don't want rice, the sauce can be an equally delicious addition to spaghetti.

Ingredients are:

1 cup of rice
½ lb. of sliced mushrooms
1 medium sized onion minced
1 medium sized green pepper minced
1 stick celery minced
¼ lb. butter
10 oz. tomato juice

Wash the rice well, then add slowly to four cups of boiling water that has been salted. Cover and cook for 20 minutes. Do not stir. Strain and wash out starch.

Using half the butter, saute the onion, green pepper and celery for five minutes. Add the cooked rice and mix together.

Saute the mushrooms in the rest of the butter. Add the tomato juice and stew for five minutes. Add salt and pepper to taste.

Place the rice in the casserole and pour on the mushroom sauce. You will have enough for six servings.

ABSOLUTELY impossible to ignore is beautiful Lee Sharon — if her clothes, figure, dark eyes and bright smile fail to catch attention, which is incredible, then that hair-to-the-tail hairdo will succeed. Best of all, Miss Sharon, a night-club star looks as if she enjoys attention.

MIDDLETON, Ohio — Last month Judge John T. Lahr ordered Bob Boring, 19, to attend four sessions of a traffic school after the youth had been convicted of reckless driving. The third session was held Thursday night but Boring didn't show up. He had been arrested for hitting a pedestrian while en route to the class.
