Merchant Navy To Seek Vet Benefits

VANCOUVER (C)— The Canadian Merchant Navy Veterans Association is campaigning for Veterans' benefits for merchant seamen who sailed during the Second World War.

They are seeking Veterans' Land Act benefits, a vocational training program and priority for civil service jobs for more than 7,000 Canadian seamen.

A. J. Heide, secretary-treasurer of the association, said a meeting of interested seamen will be held soon in Vancouver.

"We're going to lobby every candidate across Canada in the next federal election—regardless of party," Mr. Heide said.
