Frank Sinatra, s son going into show biz

singer in the pork pie hat was mother of his three children, me ... wood agreen in a corner of the recording father. studio, a slim boy who bore a His eldest, Nancy, 21, made her estriking resemblance to the show business debut with her singer was staring into space, dad, but put her career in low bobbing to the rhythm.

When Count Basie's band my Sands. bounced the last beat, 18-year- Frank's youngest, Tina, 14, old Frank Sinatra, Jr., walked likes to sing, too. over to his dad.

boy started to ask. His father can wait. He's a little young." rough going in his two broken 129; senior 153.

HOLLYWOOD (A)—The slender marriages—to Nancy Sinatra, who divorced him when young Frank was six, and to actress "Why not take awwwwl of Ava Gardner—most in Hollywood agree he has scored as a gear after marrying singer Tom-

"How did I do last . . . " the is the closest to his dad right interrupted, "just a minute, son." now. He is preparing for a show As young Frank walked away, business career, sings mighty A. C. Bennett will soon hold a press agent told senior: "He's like The Voice, has a record aranxious to know what you rangement coming out, wants to thought of his performance last be an actor and even shares "I know," said Frank, "but he 5-foot-10," says junior. "He lothes with his dad—"we're both If Sinatra Sr. has had some weighs more than I do." junior

It's Frank, Jr., who probably FEDERAL WORKS Minister Davie Fulton says he hopes British Columbia Premier W. talks with the federal government in order to straighten out the Columbia power situation. Mr. Fulton said it has become increasingly apparent that the United States will not pay Mr. Bennett's stated price for downstream rights on the

There's more arithmetic this time in figuring income tax returns

May 1 and two changes await than under the 1961 scheme. their scruting thorized by Parliament last year assesment and collection. in the exemptions to be claimed EXPECT MORE ERRORS for each dependent child. The Federal tax authorities say they to figure out what 16 per cent of new exemption is $300 per child, expect more errors in tax re-although no higher federal tax, reaction to any such innovation. It follows the withdrawal last March 31 of the federal govern- the majority who must pay tax: ment from the tax-rental field rather than get some money which it shared with all prov-back tend to take longer to file inces except Quebec.

owe to each government.

Island, Nova Scotia, New Bruns- This produces total taxable in- figures.

OTTAWA (E-About 6,000,000 wick, Ontario, Alberta and Bri-come. Canadians must file 1962 person- tish Columbia won't pay any; Tax on this income is calcuincome tax returns before more federally or provincially lated although this year this Manitoba and Saskatchewan Most will welcome one. It im- are assessing residents more credits, the figure for the soplements the $50 increase au-Quebec continues with its own called "basic" tax is produced.

The other will mean more turns until the public catches on arithmetic for many tax filers to the changes. This is a normal portion that will go to all prov-Human nature being what it is,

The federal government has Tax calculation for 1962-with agreed to continue collecting tax the so-called T1 form used by the universal old age pensions. for all provinces except Quebec about 80 per cent of all per- In previous years no separate but a number of taxpayers sons filing income tax returns— caluculation was required of the must figure out how much they proceeds much the same way as taxpayer to work out the amount

Residents of seven provinces—! Total income is listed. Then rates and tables supplied with Newfoundland, Prince Edward allowable deductions are set out each form included it in their amount is called federal tax.

Then, after any adjustments or MORE FIGURING that basic tax is. This is the inces except Quebec. He deducts that from the sum he owes the federal government. Finally, he adds to his federal tax total a flat $90 or three per cent of his taxable income whichever is less. This is for for old age security tax. The tax

Prince Rupert Daily-Mews Ltd. Monday, March 11, 1963

Ladies Canteen Duty Men's Bonspiel-1963

Thursday March 14th — 5 p.m. - 9 p.m. Jessie Collins, Doris Dominato, L. Bremner, Mrs. Eby Sr.

> Thursday, March 14th, — 9 p.m. - 1 a.m. Barbara Roos, Amy Jeffries, Helen Ford

Friday, March 15th, — 5 p.m. - 9 p.m. Betty McLeod, K. McEachran, Donna Miller, Kay Kurdziel

Friday, March 15th, — 9 p.m. - 1 a.m. Y. Youden, Olga Newton, Carol McDonald, Mrs. Prusky

1 p.m. - 5 p.m. — D. Dibb

Please Refer to Bulletin Board at Curling Rink for Further Schedules

Advertising in The Daily News Brings Results

Let yourself go! Blast off on a great new driving experience. You're behind the wheel of the new Falcon V-8... feel the power of the engine! It's all Ford! This is the engine that powered Falcon to first place in its class in this year's famed Monte Carlo Rallye! Fast, strong, dependable! Listen! It's so quiet... this is engine smoothness no compact car has ever had before. Split second response! And more: this optional V-8 engine is a new lightweight construction for real economy. Put this kind of V-8 in the sleek, slick Falcon and you've really got something going for you. Go test-drive it this week. Choose from convertibles, sedans, wagons—all with Service Convenience features the result of outstanding FORD quality. Your Dealer will tell you all about the outstanding FORD Total Warranty for 24,000

PARKER'S FORD CENTRE

2nd Ave. and McBride - Phone 2300