Frizzell's, Bo-Me-Hi Golds Top Inter-School Basketball Tourney

By DICK EYRES

Frizzell's, Booth Memorial High school intermediate boys team of Prince Rupert emerged the victor in the two-day Northern B.C. Inter-high school basketball tournament when they defeated a fighting Sunrise team also from Bo-Me-Hi 8-5 in a playoff before a screaming crowd of parents and students at the Civic Centre.

The win gave Frizzell's five wins out of six games in the 23-game series which saw teams from Ocean Falls, Kitimat, and Terrace high schools battling for tournament crests.

For the girls Bo-Me-Hi Golds beat out Charles Pillar's Terrace girls 4-0 in a six-minute playoff after tying with the interior squad with two wins and one loss each.

From the two winning teams also came the most valuable players for both boys and girls teams.

MOST VALUABLE PLAYERS

Named most valuable player to his team from any of the boys squads was Don Haudenschild of Frizzell's and Sonja Selvig of Golds received the most valuable player trophy for the girls.

The judges Mrs. Bernice Cooper, Jack Evans and Bruce Bennett watched players in every game and chose the winners on the basis of outstanding play and the fact that both Haudenschild and Selvig were the biggest single factors in their teams' victories.

Trophies and crests were presented to the winners by Dick Ayres, news editor of The Daily News. Bert White was master of ceremonies and announcer for the series as well as being a member of the tournament committee composed of Mrs. Bert White, Jack Evans, Don Hartwig, R. H. Davidson, Miss Georgina McNay, Andrea Veitch, Marg Stuchiany, Jim Stewart, Alf Strand and Don Hargrove.

Frizzell's triumph was well-earned. Yesterday afternoon when the last day of the smoothly-run tournament resumed, Don Hartwig's Motors' squad had a one-win and one loss record.

In the afternoon games they went on to down A. R. Kemp's team 23-16 and chalked up their third win by trimming Ocean Falls 31-21.

Meanwhile, Slim Davidson's Sunrise disposed of Terrace 29-13 and handed Bert White's North Star squad a 25-14 shellacking.

IMPROVED CLUB

Most improved club of the series, as they finally got the feel of the Civic Centre gym floor was Don Little's Ocean Falls squad. Playing a wide open game, breaking fast and using floor-length passes the Ocean Falls squad had no trouble in downing North Star 34-26.

Standout for Ocean Falls was Ray Smith who chalked up 15 points.

The Sunrise squad had it all their own way in the first half of the Sunrise-Frizzell's encounter, with Jimmy Stewart leading the way led 12-7 at the half. Accuracy at the foul line by Frizzell's and fouls by Sunrise made the difference in the second half as Denny Leeman potted two Frizzell's goals and Don Haudenschild sank four free shots in four tries. The Mountmen held Sunrise down to six points while they themselves racked up 14.

In the eight-minute playoff, Frizzell's Haudenschild potted a field goal and two free shots with Alf Strand and Eugene Nelson adding two points each while only Morris Dean and Ted Leask managed to score 5 points between them for Sunrise.

SCORE UPSET

Terrace girls looked like a winner all the way in the first half of the last scheduled girls game, leading Kitimat 2-0 at the half. However, the determined smeltertown crew, coached by Miss O. Husack, came back to take the lead and go ahead with 51 seconds left.

Greens held a 6-2 first-half edge in their game with Golds but went to pieces in the second half. Sparked by Lorraine Kennedy with 4 points, the Golds fought back and foul shots by Ann Wick, Arlene Johnson they came back to win in the last 55 seconds.

In the Terrace-Golds six-minute playoff Golds checked the interior team into the ground, with two free shots by Sonja Selvig giving the Bo-Me-Hi quintette the championship.

CHEER SECTIONS BUSY

Throughout the tournament Booth junior and senior cheering sections kept the school spirit alive and received a pleasant assist from Marcia Partington, Betty Jean Kofed and Beth Lever, cheer leaders from Skeena High school, Terrace. For Bo-Me-Hi seniors, Ken McKinnon led Jean Smurthwaite, Marlon Varfeldt and Alna Carlson in yells and the junior cheering section of Gladys Grimolfson, Gallya Grimolfson, Barbara Marineau, Evelyn Rowe, Georgina Ferguson, Leona Ritchie, Valarie Richardson, Virginia Genders and Margaret Childs won many ovations from the crowd.

Thrills, Laughs Slated From Giants Wednesday

Thrills and laughs galore plus an exhibition of the best in basketball are guaranteed by the Prince Rupert Basketball association Wednesday night when the Philadelphia Colored Giants display their wares at the Civic Centre.

Scheduled to take on Prince Rupert Challengers in a game starting at 8 p.m., the Giants play superior ball. Apart from their expert ballhandling and ability to beat all-comers, the Giants are credited with putting on a marvellous show.

Wherever they have played, the lanky pro-basketball squad make sure that the home-town players are not antagonized by the tom-foolery they pull off and can play it straight or for laughs whenever they feel like it.

With a Gordon and Anderson-Booth High school Rainmakers Senior B game set as a semi-windup it is left to Manson's Omegas to supply the opposition to the Colored Giants. Facing the visiting Giants, who have only one man under 6 feet, one-inch, will be Art Olson, Bill Sunberg, Glen Carlson, Don and Syd Scherk, Ray Spring and Don Hartwig, with possible reinforcements from G & A and Rainmakers.

Filling out the bill will be a Senior Girls league fixture, Dojn's versus Golds and a Junior Boys league game, Sports Shop vs Manson's.

Merritt Nelson, director of the Redding, California Area Recreation has this to say about the Giants:

"The Giants play superior ball. They were three to five times as good as our representative town team which we class as AAA, and our town team annually takes every tournament 100 miles or more in all directions from Redding."
