ALL-STAR LINE-UPS

Parker, Etcheverry Meet Again Dec. 8

By LARRY STANWOOD
Canadian Press Staff Writer

VANCOUVER (CP) — Quarter-backs Jackie (Swivelhips) Parker of the Edmonton Eskimos and Sam (The Rifle) Etcheverry of the Montreal Alouettes will continue their gridiron duel when Western Canada meets the East in the Shrine all-star football classic here Dec. 8.

But the lineups, announced today by Canadian Rugby Union secretary Harry McBrien, bear little other resemblance to the team which battled for the Canadian football championship at Toronto's Varsity Stadium last Saturday.

The Eskimos, champions of the Western Interprovincial Football Union, then pounded out a 50-27 Grey Cup victory over the Alouettes, leaders of the Big Four.

REPRESENT NINE CLUBS

The lineups for the East-West fixture feature players from each of the nine clubs in the WIFU and Big Four, with Saskatchewan Roughriders taking the lead in the West with nine players and Hamilton Tiger Cats high in the East with eight.

Roughriders lost to Eskimos in the WIFU finals this year while Hamilton bowed to Montreal in the Big Four.

Edmonton and Montreal each supplied seven players, on the offensive side topped by Eskimos' Parker, guard Frank Anderson, and battering fullback Normie Kwong.

Fabulous pass receiver Hal Patterson is the only Montreal selection besides Etcheverry on the offensive lineup.

The CRU secretary said the selection of players was based on a popular ballot vote by fans, football writers, sportscasters and coaches of all the clubs.

Coaches in this new Canadian football attraction will be Frank (Pop) Ivy of the Eskimos, three-time Grey Cup winner for the West, and Hamilton coach James Trimble.

Ray Prochaska of Edmonton and Ralph Sazio of Hamilton have been named assistant coaches.

EARLY STARTING TIME

Game time is 2 p.m. MST in Vancouver's 25,500-seat Empire Stadium.

Here are the lineups:

team with six points and coupled with some good passing from Chester Stewart managed to tie the quarter 10-10 with Crusaders whose mainstay was Steve Comadina with five points. Comadina was top scorer for Crusaders with 15 points, followed closely by Bill Smith with 14.

Annunciation with their souped up play managed to come back with a tie in the period after a 4-0 deficit in the first minute of play.

During the second period Annunciation managed to get the edge on Sunrise with some superb shots from Bill Smith, a small but formidable cager, who scoring six of his eight points from just outside the key, brought the half time score to 20-16.

The third quarter was a seesaw battle until a last second goal by Sunrise's Fred Ridley gave his team a 32-30 edge.
