New Senior Ball Entry Mostly Veteran Players

With few exceptions, the Hotelmen, the re-named Commercial Hotel team, will take to the diamond at Roosevelt park Sunday for the Prince Rupert Senior baseball league opener with Esquire's with much the same roster of players that won them the 1955 league.

Two rookies have been added to the list of talent, manager Miner Simundson will have on hand while veteran hotel outfielder Nick Pavlikis will be back in the lineup after a season's absence.

Making their first appearance in senior ball will be basketballers Art Helin, slated to alternate with veteran shortstop Cliff Dahl and Gary Morison added to the Hotelmen outfield staff.

Also new to the hotel uniform will be Reynold McKay, former Esquire catcher, who will spell off regular hotel backstop Don Hawryluk this year.

CAMERON TO START

For the opener, manager Simundson will rely on veterans and has named pitching mainstay righthander Gord Cameron to start. His battery mate will be Hawryluk.

The infield will consist of Joe Davis, first base; Bruce Simundson, second base; Bill Sedgwick, last year's rookie award winner at third base and Cliff Dahl, shortstop.

Tentative outfield will consist of Nick Pavlikis, Jack Lindsay and Miner Simundson.

Named to the regular pitching staff is Maurice Scott who will be given relief infield duty at third as well. Relief pitching this year will be provided by Lindsay, Dahl and Hawryluk.

Also back this year on the outfield will be Ron Cameron who played his first year ball with the same club last season

Coaching will be handled by Alek Bill and Cliff Dahl, while the Hotelmen's team representative to the sponsor is Bill Murray, of the Commercial Hotel.

NEW UNIFORMS

New club uniforms are all white, with red piping. Caps are navy blue with red peaks and a red "H" while stockings are red with red, white and blue stripes. Shirts will have large block numerals on the back and "Hotelmen" across the chest.

Baseball season this year will be preceded Friday by a banquet and dance at the Elk's Home, at which Vancouver sports columnist Dick Beddoes will be guest speaker. Films of the 1955 World Series will also be shown.

Nomadic Left-Hander Sparks Tigers To Renewed Activity

By The Associated Press

Charlie Maxwell, a 29-year-old nomad, has been in professional baseball since 1947 and he has yet to spend two complete seasons with one team.

He has been in and out of the majors three times and played with five different minor league clubs. It's just possible that he finally has found himself a home with Detroit Tigers.

A muscular left - handed swinger, Maxwell was tabbed for utility duty before the season started, but as of today is practically in full charge of left field.

His two-run homer Wednesday night led Detroit to a 7-3 decision over Washington Senators and he hit two homers Tuesday He has hit six all told and is batting .377, third in the American League.

If he can prove to manager Bucky Harris he can hit left-handers, he will be around the Bengal outfield a long time.

The Tigers still are in the basement but are beginning to show some life. Al Kaline chipped in with a two-run homer and Frank House contributed a bases-loaded triple.

YANKEES STOPPED

Elsewhere, Cleveland Indians finally stopped New York Yankees 6-5, the Red Sox crushed Chicago White Sox 7-5 and Kansas City whipped Baltimore Orioles 4-0 behind Art Ditmar's seven-hitter.

Only two games were played in the National league. Tom Poholsky whitewashed Philadelphia Phillies 3-0 for St. Louis Cardinals, and Cincinnati Redlegs edged New York Giants 6-5.

The Chicago-Brooklyn and Milwaukee - Pittsburgh games were rained out.
