Mobile X-Ray Unit For B.C. Provided by TB Seal Sales

B.C. Tuberculosis Society announced today it will present a new $30,000 mobile chest X-ray unit to the B.C. health department soon for use in an intensived TB case-finding program.

Funds for the unit, which will be used to give free chest X-rays throughout B.C. will come from the sale of TB Christmas Seals which is now under way in the province.

Proceeds of the annual sale of the TB seals pay for the society's year-'round preventive program against TB which is still B.C.'s major public health program.

The new mobile unit will supplement the one previously given to the health department by the society. It will help to expand the program of finding cases of TB in the early stage.

It is most important that this be done quickly, society officials stressed, because the number of new TB cases were found in B.C. last year and indications are that there will be just as many this year.

Society officials stress that since TB is a contagious disease, each of the new cases is a source of danger to others. They also stress it costs B.C. an average of $15,000 to treat and rehabilitate a tuberculosis patient.

They also stressed that the best safeguard against TB are regular chest X-rays which help disclose the disease, in the early stage when chances of cure are best and when the danger of infecting others can quickly be minimized.

In Prince Rupert the Soroptimist International association is in charge of TB seal distribution. Soroptimists have mailed out 3,186 envelopes containing seals to city mailing addresses.

changes in the criminal code. He warned that if steps were not taken at once to raise funds by car bingo, the opportunity might be permanently lost.

Mr. Long emphasized that the Kinsmen club was not there to suggest that city funds be used towards the project.

$4,000 A MONTH

"We merely think that the club could operate car bingo more frequently than is now the case," he said. "We also think that we could do a better job if the proceeds were earmarked for a swimming pool. At about $4,000 a month, which bingo games of this sort would probably raise, we could have the pool in about four or five years which is not too long a time if all things are considered. However, if the people want a pool before that time, there are other means of getting it."

TORONTO (CP)—Mrs. Nan Foster of the Institute of Child Study said children who attend nursery school learn earlier now to enjoy the company of others.

GUELPH, Ont. (CP)—A woman called police at 2:30 a.m. when she heard someone prowling around the house. Investigating police found it was another policeman, checking doors and windows.
