AFRICAN BEAUTY—West African beauties wear their nails long, if one can judge by this rare pangolin, which George Wyman Carrol just brought back from Spanish Guinea. A mammal with a reptilian body, the pangolin can pull apart a five-inch log with its claws. It's six-foot body is covered with matted-hair scales that are sharp and stick out like blades when the pangolin curls itself into a ball. The 80-pound animal, second largest of its kind ever seen in the U.S., is headed for Ivan Sanderson's Jungle Zoo near Columbia, N.J.

Audrey Hepburn, Mel Ferre Wed

BURGENSTOCK, Switzerland (AP)—Oscar-winning Audrey Hepburn and actor-director Mel Ferre, who fell in love when they appeared together in a Broadway hit, were married Saturday in a small private chapel overlooking picturesque Lake Lucerne.

The bride wore a white Dior dress for the Protestant religious ceremony which followed a civil marriage at nearby Buochs Friday.

It was the first marriage for Miss Hepburn. Ferre, 37, has been married before.

ATTLEE URGES DELIVERY OF FORMOSA TO RED CHINA

SCARBOROUGH, England (AP)—Socialist leader Clement Attlee opened the annual Labor party conference today with a call for the delivery of Formosa to the Chinese Communists and the exiling to a "safe place" of Nationalist leader Chiang Kai-shek.

The 3,000 delegates and alternates applauded the 71-year-old former prime minister and party chief as he declared also that the Peiping government must have China's seat in the United Nations.

Attlee's views on China, closely paralleling those of his left-wing rival, Aneurin Bevan, sounded a note of party unity certain to dissipate Tuesday when the conference turns to debate on the issue of rearming West Germany.
