Grant Warwick, then a right-winger with New York Rangers, was named "Rookie of the Year" in the National Hockey League 13 years ago today in the annual poll for the Calder Trophy. Warwick now is playing-coach of Penticton Vs, who regained the world hockey championship for Canada a week ago by beating Russia 5-0 in the final in Germany.

Joe Giordano Rolls 638 To Set New Men's Ten Pin Mark For Year

Joe Giordano, currently the hottest kegler in the Men's Ten Pin Bowling league, showed his best form for the year last Wednesday when he shot 194, 245, and a 199 for a 638 threesome which surpassed the 631 series left here when Denis Fontaine was transferred to Vancouver.

Giordano is sparing for the Grant & Newton team which entrenched themselves solidly in second place behind City Transfer by taking three points from the R.C.M.P. while the Transfer crew were doing the same to Albert & McCaffery, Canadian Pacific Airlines took three points from Moose to pass them and move into fourth place, one point behind the Albert & McCaffery team.

City Transfer scored the high single and the high three games for the night with scores of 899 and 2570 respectively while Giordano's scores took all the individual marks. Other good games were rolled by Rudderham 225, Wick 216, and Arney with 214 and 201.

League standings are as follows: City Transfer 33, Grant & Newton 30, Albert & McCaffery 28, Canadian Pacific Airlines 27, Moose 23, and R.C.M.P. 12.

Eilers Meet U.S. Cagers Tonight

VANCOUVER (CP) — A team without a league, the Vancouver Ellers women's basketball team represents Canada tonight at the Pan-American Games in Mexico City.

Because they annually skim off the cream of the city's basketball talent, Ellers this year found themselves without any local competition.

To keep in shape for the Pan-American Games and a shot at their sixth straight Canadian Championship, they have practised regularly under hard-driving coach Gordie McDonald and occasionally played men's teams.

BETTER THAN EVER

McDonald rates this year's team the best he has had.

"We should win the Canadian title again this year and should finish in the first three at the Pan-American Games, though I'd like to finish first."

In the last five years Ellers have compiled a record of 150 victories against five losses.

Two of those defeats were against Victoria last spring when the Vancouver Island team surprised everyone by winning the British Columbia title in two straight games.

But Victoria had already declined to take part in the Dominion playoffs and Ellers went on to beat Calgary handily for their fifth consecutive crown.

GAINED REVENGE

Ellers gained revenge last month when they overpowered Victoria in two games for this year's B.C. title.

Because of their trip to Mexico City, Ellers have been given a bye into the Canadian final in April.

Four members of the team that won the first of the string of Canadian championships against Edmonton in 1950 are on the present squad. They are sisters Louise and Nora McDermott, Bev Slater and Noreen Stoddart.

Other team members are Pat Smith, Peg Milner, Shirley Topley, Joan Mitchell, Zoe Robinson, Heather Walker and Edith McDonald, wife of the coach.

Penticton Wins Exhibition Game

PARIS (Reuters) — Penticton Vs, world hockey champions, defeated a team of Canadians in Europe 4-1 Saturday night to wind up their exhibition tour of the continent.

The Vs, who play a game in London before leaving for home Tuesday, led 2-0 at the end of the first period, added single goals in the second and third period before the Canadians in Europe got their only goal.
