Bowl hero Says

NEW YORK (P) --- Winnipeg's prospects of snagging Jim VanderKelen dimmed today as the Wisconsin quarterback, a Rose Bowl hero in a losing cause, tossed off a few significant

"I don't want to be a bench | warmer," said VanderKelen, [who became a hot property with his passing display in the New Year's Day classic after being ignored in the National Football League draft and ranking no better than 21st on the shopping! list of New York Titans of the American League.

"I don't want to go to a team that already has two or three good quarterbacks," he said.

That was bad news for the Blue Bombers, the team that had the Wisconsin senior on its negotiation list all along.
