From other sources we are told that the Japanese are already in Mexico colonizing a part of that country, establishing, as it were, the far-flung battle line of the Mikado. In Alaska these same omnipresent Asiatics are engaged in the salmon industries, and, although it is not alleged that canned Japanese are sent to California as an advance guard of the Nippon invaders, we are solemnly told that the little brown men are ceaselessly creeping, crawling, hiking and sailing with but one object in view, and that the seizure of the slope.

Robt. Miller, one of the old members of the Skidegate band, is seriously ill. Dr. Wright, accompanied by Mrs. Wright, paid a visit to the Skidegate reserve on Friday.

Another launch was added this week to the local flotilla. Built at Pacon from special designs, it forms a handsome addition to the numerous fleet that grace these waters. Geo. Beattie is the owner.

They are camping near the only outlets to the western and eastern states of the Union. They are coming as blacksmiths, harness makers, lemon raisers and fishmongers, by they are in reality soldiers of the Emperor. When the Emperor is ready to strike us as swiftly and fatally as he did the Russians, those disguised Japanese soldiers will rush to the mountain salty ports, lock them up, and thus shut off all relief to California from any of the states east of the Sierras.

They will soon be coming in air-ships. They are piking along the highways, pouring through the mountain passes, and crossing the deserts, halting only for sleep on the alkali beds.
