Visitors to Smithers these days see moustachewearing men on the street, behind store counters and at office desks.

The hirsute adornment is all part of Smithers' preparations for celebrating its golden jubilee. Residents are re-creating as much of the 1913 atmosphere as possible without impeding "business as usual". The jubilee contest is strictly for moustaches, which will be judged during the week of June 30 to July 6 when the official celebrations take place.
