Prince George Asks B.C. Aid

PRINCE GEORGE (C) — Mayor Gordon Bryant says the Nechako river is a constant threat to the economy of Prince George and has asked Ray Williston MLA for Fort George, to take a personal interest in the matter.

The river receded Monday from the flood levels of last week that left the city without chlorine in its water supply and forced closure of the Prince George planing mills.

The river crested when an ice jam formed where the Nechako flows into the frozen Fraser. Unusually warm weather was blamed for the occurrence.

Prince George Board of Trade officials have joined the city in requesting steps against a recurrence.

FAMOUS RIVER

The Restigouche river, noted for salmon fishing, is three miles wide at its mouth on Chaleur bay.
