United Church Sunday School Party Stayed

The nine classes of the First United Church primary Sunday school held its annual Christmas party Monday at the Church hall, highlight of which was an hour-long program of skits, recitations, vocal and instrumental solos and carol singing.

More than 150 Sunday school members, parents and friends packed the hall to watch as each of the Sunday school classes put on a short skit.

Between class performances, piano solos were played by Donny Evans and Susan Harding; Tommy Lewis recited "When Father Puts Up the Christmas Tree;" Larry Gordon gave "The Janitor's Lament" Judy Pinniger sang "O Christmas Tree" and Linde and Susan Rosenberg sang "Bethlehem Lullaby."

Carol singing rounded out the program which was followed by the showing of a film "Christmas Around The World."

Guests were welcomed by host, Rev. Lawrence G. Sieber while the program was in charge of Mrs. Arthur Logan.

Santa Visits Gyro Children

In his merriest mood, Santa Claus paid his annual visit to children of Gyro Club members at a Christmas party yesterday in the Civic Centre.

Welcomed to the tune of "Jingle Bells," Santa distributed gifts and had a personal talk with each youngster. Moving pictures were also in the program.

Emile Blain was in charge of arrangements.

Moose Women Committees Hold Meetings

Two committees of the Women of the Moose held regular meetings last week in private homes, one in the form of a Christmas party and the other as a whist party.

Entertaining a Christmas party was the Home Making Committee at the home of Mrs. William Bussey, December 13, with Mrs. W. A. Pilfold, chairman, presiding.

Games of whist and a balloon contest saw Mrs. Fred Grimble winning first whist prize, Mrs. C. J. Wilkinson consolation and Mrs. A. E. Pongraz winning the balloon contest.

Members exchanged gifts. Mrs. Pongraz received a special gift for her newly-born baby and Mrs. A. E. Norton presented the hostess with a gift.

Mrs. Bussey then served refreshments.

At the business session plans were made for a home-cooking sale February 11, 1956.

Miss Alice Paulson took the whist first prize and Mrs. Carl Matson the consolation at the Library Committee meeting held the same night at the home of Mrs. Emil Nordine. Chairman was Miss Sylvia Johnson.

Refreshments concluded the party.
