By THE CANADIAN PRESS Vancouver Canucks, who have do-si-do'd with Seattle Totems all season, moved ahead again Tuesday night in the Western Hockey Leagues Northern Division.

Like so many of the Canuck's two-point leads, it will probably be short-lived.

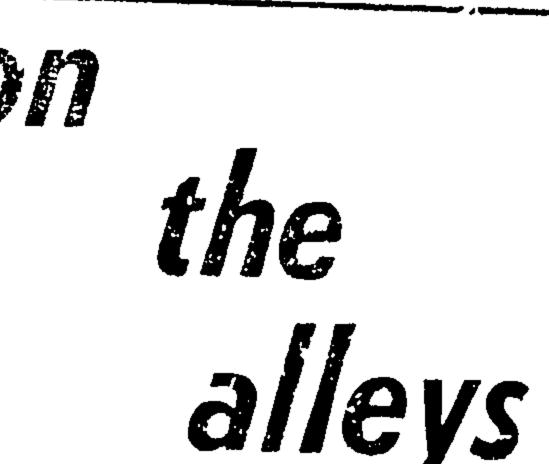

Their scrappy 2-1 victory over the last-place Edmonton Flyers will be challenged to-night when [ Seattle takes on the plucky San | Francisco Seals, A Seattle win would tie it all up again.

By MURRAY ROSE takes the big step tonight on the

If cocky Cassius displays the punch to match his mouth against Doug Jones at Madison Square Garden, he could be well on the way to millionaire status before his 22nd birthday.

The 21-year-old heavyweight boxing contender from Louisville, Ky., is rated a 3-to-1 favorite to whip his 26-year-old New York rival before a standing-roomonly crowd of 18,732.

Starting time is 10 p.m. EST for the scheduled 10-rounder, to be carried on closed-circuit tele-

Clay will earn about $100,000 and Jones $75,000 If he stops Jones in four rounds, as he has predicted, or beats him decisively, Clay will be close to a title fight with world heavyweight king Sonny Liston — providing Liston gets by Floyd Patterson rext month—in September. Jones never has been stopped.
