MAKE-UP MAN Larry Butterworth (right) works a comb through the hair of Robert Wilson as the actor is prepared for a scene in "Day of Triumph," in which he portrays Jesus Christ. Butterworth patterns the make-up job after artist L. Jambor's famed portrait of the Savior. The film is Hollywood's first full-scale Christ story since sound movies.

Kefauver Given Biggest Setback

NEWARK, N. J. (AP)— Senator Estes Kefauver of Tennessee went down to a resounding defeat in Tuesday's New Jersey primary election—his most serious setback since he opened his campaign for the Democratic presidential nomination.

At the same time, New Jersey Republicans gave President Eisenhower a firm endorsement, although he had no opposition in his party.

Returns from 3,416 of the state's 4,155 voting districts showed these totals in the presidential preference sections of the ballots: Eisenhower 260,007; Kefauver 98,227.

In the Democratic returns, there also were 1,681 write-ins for Adlai Stevenson, who was not an official candidate in this primary.

NEW WESTMINSTER (CP) — An assize court jury Wednesday found Peter Joseph Alex, 53, not guilty of murder in the death near Hope last December 24 of Harold Garner, 27.

The jury deliberated about 90 minutes before bringing down the verdict. Garner was shot to death in the Alex home at the American Bar Indian reserve.

ONE OF TOP 10—Mr. John's glass straw picture hat, trimmed with large natural colored roses and velvet ribbon was specially created for Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt Whitney, well-known socialite. She was Mr. John's choice on the 1956 list of 10 Best-Hatted Women of America.

TO "SUP WITH DEVIL"

LONDON (Reuters) — Prime Minister Eden today received a spoon with a handle 10 feet long to enable him to "sup with the devil." The spoon was sent by the British League of Empire Loyalists as a protest against the visit of Soviet leaders to Britain. A league official said members were acting on the proverb "who sups with the devil should use a long spoon."
