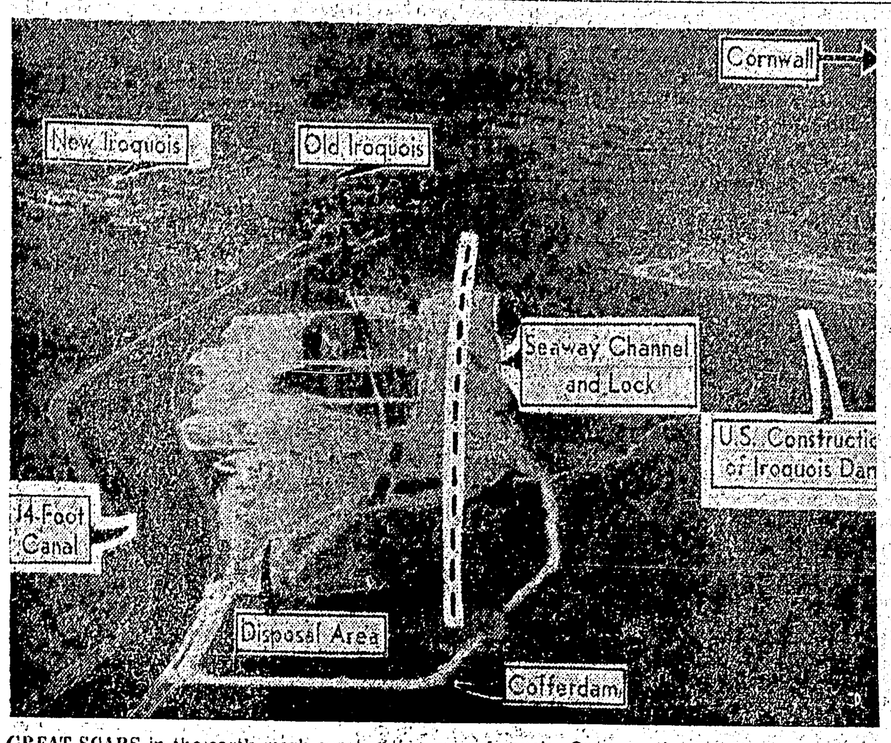
THIS QUIET SCENE SHOWS a building of the University of Saskatchewan framed by the evergreens and with snow on the ground. It is typical of much of Western Canada where three severe blizzards have caused trouble in the cities but added a seasonable touch to the quieter paths. (CP Photo)



GREAT SCARS in the earth mark construction near Iroquois, Ont., on the St. Lawrence seaway and power project. Excavation for the seaway channel and lock on the Canadian side cuts a light-colored slash across Point Iroquois in centre foreground. Cofferdam in foreground will hold back the river while the channel is being excavated below the present water level. Between the present 14-foot canal (at left) and the new channel is a disposal area where earth is dumped. Cleared area at upper left is site of the new town of Iroquois. Already 70 houses have been moved there from the old community which will disappear under the power lake. On the United States side, the New York state power authority has chewed away Point Rockway and has started pouring concrete for the Iroquois control dam. (CP Photo)

ADDED ATTRACTION — Fetching film star Belinda Lee, one of Britain's newest and most attractive actresses, put in an appearance at a movie premiere in London — and it wouldn't be too far wrong to say she almost stole the show.

MEASURED READING

TORONTO (CP) — The average newspaper reader spends about 11 minutes reading news and about 30 seconds on each advertisement that catches his attention, a salesmanship course here was told by Howard S. Mark, department store advertising manager.

CHATHAM, Ont. (CP) — In the early 1840's the thriving shipbuilding and shipping community of Chatham had one tavern for every 100 residents, Mrs. W. E. Hanley told a meeting of the Kent historical society. The village, population 1,000 then, had two schools, four churches and 10 taverns, she said.

Nelson Leads in Point Race But Trailing in Pay Scale

By The Canadian Press

Nelson Maple Leafs may be leading the WIHL in points, but they're almost certain to be trailing in the salary class.

Wednesday, as they fought in Kimberley to a 4-4 overtime tie, club officials in Nelson announced that a 25-per-cent salary cut had been approved by players.

The cut means a $4,000 saving said Cecil Hughes, secretary-treasurer of the Leafs. He said the team would have been forced to drop from the league if the cut had not been approved. Club now has a deficit of about $6,500, increasing almost daily despite tight budgeting. Poor attendance is blamed.

In Kelowna, Spokane Flyers of the WIHL bowed 4-2 to a hustling packer attack in a scheduled inter-loop match.

Spokane continues the OSHL tour tonight at Kamloops for the only game.

Thom's Rink Captures Cook Trophy

Members of Harold Thom's rink are holders of the George Cook Jewelers trophy competition today after defeating Jack Laurie's rink 11-9 in the finals of the competition held at the Prince Rupert Curling Club last night.

Thom's crew of Bill Smith, Byron Lofgren and Harvey Stewart led all the way after overtaking Laurie after two ends. Laurie's runner-up team is composed of Stan Petrow, Ted Thompson and Gordon Poffenroth.

Results of games leading up to the finals were as follows:

Tuesday: Robertson 15, Eyolfson 7; Thom 8, Bateman 7; Lindsay 9, Kellough 8; Laurie 7, McNiece 4.

Semi-finals last night: Laurie 12, Lindsay 4 and Thom 11, Robertson 5.

The Grotto Cigar Store competition gets underway tonight.

Vancouver Gets $3,500 Cheque For Grey Cup

VANCOUVER (CP) — A $3,500 cheque representing a surplus from the 1955 Grey Cup festival budget was presented to Mayor Fred Hume Wednesday as a trust fund for the next Grey Cup in Vancouver.

John Dunsmuir, chairman of the Grey Cup festival committee, said a further $1,500 might be added to the fund when auditing of the books was completed.

He said the Grey Cup game here last November 26 had cost the city $2,500 — amount spent on a float for the parade.

Towers of the BBC broadcasting station at Droitwich in England are 700 feet high.
