Cancer Fund Total $4,286 Local Branch Meeting Told

Final figures for the 1956 fund drive of the Prince Rupert branch of the B.C. Division of the Canadian Cancer Society was $4,286, H. Weldon Steel, campaign chairman told an executive meeting of the branch Thursday night. Quota was $2,000.

Seventeen members of the branch, meeting at the Broadway cafe were told that a by-law of the B.C. Division of the Canadian Cancer Society states: "That in the future no division, branch or unit of the Society shall join or participate in Community Chest, United Funds or any other participating method of raising funds except with the affiliated cancer organizations." The by-law was passed by the directors in June, 1956.

The meeting decided that it would add an extra service to the branches activities.

From now on branch members will provide a volunteer visiting service which will include occupational and recreational activities, helping of patients family with such household chores as marketing, cooking meals, care of children and lightening of patient's burden.

Services already provided by include housekeeping services, the local cancer society branch travelling expenses, assistance towards cost of drugs, assistance toward artificial appliances, help for home nursing such as hospital beds, wheel chairs, crutches and trays which are obtained through the facilities of the Vancouver Red Cross loan cupboard.

Miss Helene Boehme, head public health nurse told the meeting that the Red Cross is trying to establish a Red Cross loan cupboard in Prince Rupert.

Mrs. T. J. Boulter reported tha there are plenty of cancer dressings available for patients through the Eastern tar dressing service.

A report on the local branch's activities showed that four patients had been assisted to date and an escort provided for a local patient who had to go south for treatment.

The meeting was also told that Grade 9 students of Booth Memorial High school were submitting entries in the Cancer essay contest on the subject of include: housekeeping services, "Cancer Research, Its Meaning for Mankind."

The National campaign chairman reported that British Columbia exceeded its quota of $300,000 by a handsome margin with a total of $323,466 being raised.

The meeting was chaired by Mrs. Yet Wong, president.

A Chinese dinner was served members through the courtesy of Peter Wong.

Pastor To Give Sermon on Israel

"The Future of the Nation of Israel" will be the topic for the sermon at the First Baptist church tomorrow night, pastor Rev. J. A. Roskam said today.

Speaking on what the Bible teaches on the future of Israel, Mr. Roskam will discuss the question "Will the Story of the Book of Esther be repeated in our present day?"

Large Crowd Attends United Church Dinner

A capacity crowd attended the First United Church "Congregational Turkey Dinner" held Thursday night in the church hall.

General convener was Mrs. Erling Pederson. Assisting with table decorations, serving, and kitchen arrangements, were members of the Women's auxiliary.

A community sing-song, with Mrs. R. W. Large at the piano, and a showing of slides on the growth of Christian churches, followed the dinner.

Local Girl, Phyllis Nystedt Married in New Westminster

An autumn wedding of interest in Prince Rupert was solemnized in the Connaught Heights Pentecostal church in New Westminster last month when Phyllis Helen Elizabeth Nystedt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Victor E. Nystedt of Prince Rupert became the bride of Norman Karl Labrentz, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Labrentz of Ponoka, Alberta.

Uncle of the bride, Rev. Marvin Forseth, officiated for evening wedding ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal white gown of lace and net-over-silk, featuring sleeves tapered to lily-points and a Peter Pan collar. Her floor-length veil was secured by a pearl and tulle bouquet of yellow rosebuds and carnations. Her only jewellery was a rhinestone necklace centred with a black Alaska diamond, a gift of the groom.

Matron of honor Mrs. James Jorde of Clinton, B.C. and bridesmaid Miss Irene Brummond of Kamloops, B.C., wore identically styled gowns in shades of yellow and mauve, pearl studded tiaras and carried matching colonial bouquets of asters and roses. Pearl necklaces completed their ensembles.

Petite flower girls, Miss Diane Forseth, cousin of the bride and Miss Wendy Hagen wore similar green silk frocks with matching flowered head-dresses and carried colonial bouquets of asters. Ring-bearer was Master Gary Jensen.

Best man was Arnold Labrentz, brother of the groom and groomsman was Alvin Nystedt, brother of the bride. Ushers were Gordon Millhouse and Eric Milke.

Organist Kenneth Smith accompanied Miss Frieda Giesbrecht who sang "The Wedding Prayer" during the signing of the register.

In a autumn setting, a reception was held in the Emmanuel church hall, New Westminster, where the bride's table was centred with a three-tiered wedding cake.

For the occasion the bride's mother wore a peacock-blue dressmaker suit, off-set with pink accessories and a corsage of pink rosebuds.

Arnold Labrentz proposed the toast to the bride.

A dusty-rose suit with navy accessories was chosen by Mrs. Labrentz for her going away costume when she and Mr. Labrentz left on a three-week honeymoon in Southern California.

They are making their home in Coalhurst, Alberta where Mr. Labrentz is the pastor of Coalhurst Pentecostal church.

Out-of-town guests attending were Mrs. Darrel Carruthers of Edmonton, sister of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. A. Hagen and family, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hagen and family and Mr. and Mrs. Robertson, all of Victoria; Mr. and Mrs. C. Nystedt of Seattle, Washington; Mrs. Robert Blackburn of Everett, Washington; Mrs. Lindquist of Portland, Oregan; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Malmgren of Camrose, Alberta, Miss Madeline Sklapsky of this city, and Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Blackaby and their three sons, formerly of this city.

Attending with the bride's parents, was brother, Dennis Nystedt.

NEW YORK (AP)—The Foreign Policy Association plans to build a world affairs centre opposite United Nations headquarters here. Its aim is to have "the most comprehensive collection ever attempted of ideas, information and materials on world affairs and the citizens' role in making foreign policy."

Christmas Tree Attraction At Presbyterian Bazaar

A glistening miniature Christmas tree, in the centre of the attractive pouring table, enhanced the Yuletide decor in the First Presbyterian church hall Thursday aftrnoon when the First Presbyterian church Ladies Aid held its pre-Christmas bazaar and tea.

Mrs. Graham Alexander, president, received the public, assisted by Mrs. J. W. Eastwood, president of the Presbyterian church Ladies' Guild.

General convener for the successful affair was Mrs. K. C. Aird.

Tea cup pourers were; Mrs. George Rodgers, Mrs. James Hadden, sr., Mrs. Jessie Morin and Mrs. W. G. Murray.

Mrs. Duncan McRae, Mrs. W. M. Taylor, Mrs. M. E. Martin and Mrs. R. L. Eby attended the tea tables.

Directing the kitchen operations were, Mrs. John McLeod, Mrs. Wilson Murray, Mrs. Joseph Delorme, Mrs. K. Bennett and Mrs. Alfred Bleakley.

Mrs. R. L. Tough and Mrs. L. S. Veitch attended the apron rack and Mrs. T. S. Haupt and Mrs. Bruce Wilson handled the fancywork.

Selling Christmas novelties were Mrs. William Bremner, Mrs. George Mitchell and Mrs. Sidney Elkins.

The fish pond was attended by Mrs. William McKenzie and Mrs. John Currie. Mrs. E. R. North and Mrs. Lillian Williams were in carge of the candy counter.

Convening the home-cooking booth were Mrs. Neil McLean, Mrs. Ivan McGhan and Mrs. Norman Moorehouse.

Mrs. Martin Erickson was in charge of the baby-sitting pool. Cashier was Mrs. J. M. Simpson.

2,000 Persons Visit New Store

Just more than 2,000 persons called in yesterday to view the new William F. Stone Ltd., store and congratulate, Mr. Stone himself, Walter J. Smith and Donald Hawryluk.

It was just like old home week at Stone's yesterday as the crowds milled around, admiring the fixtures and the furnishings and see history repeat.

For on hand also, as he is every day after he's through with his Booth Memorial High school classes was John Lambie, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. (Bill) Lambie. Young John is on his way to becoming a second generation clothier, following in the footsteps of his father who, according to Walter Smith "taught me all I know about clothing." In the summer time John also patterns his activities after his father on the baseball field, as Bill Lambie made his mark on the diamond in earlier years.

Bill Stone was up from his Kitimat store and to him, Mr. Smith and Mr. Hawryluk, the warm reception given them by the public yesterday wiped out the bleak frustration felt last March when fire wiped out the original building.

GAME OF SKILL

SAO PAULO (AP)—A Brazil state supreme court has ruled that gin rummy is not a gambling game. The court decided that skill and attention are more important in it than luck, ruling in favor of a club that contested an order to halt the game.

Saturday Sermon

By JOYCE M. FACEY
Conrad United Church Hall

"Greater love hath no man han this, that a man lay down his life for his friends. Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you. Henceforth I call you not servant; for the servant knoweth not what his Lord doeth; but I have called you friends; for all things that I have heard of my Father I have made known unto you." John 15: 13-15.

Here is the greatest, the tenderest, the most beautiful tribute man has ever had paid Him. Christ was speaking directly to his disciples of that day, but he was also addressing you, he was addressing me.

He was speaking to any of his followers down through the ages who keep his commandments and who do his will. All true Christians are striving earnestly to heed his voice and obey it. We can gladly appropriate Christ's remarkable statement to ourselves.

"I have called you friends!" The Christ who is so far above us—the wonder is that he can even see us. The Christ who is so faultless—we marvel that he can be so charitable to us with all our faults and frailities. The Christ who walks and talks with God himself is willing to walk and talk with us. Think of it!

But that is what true friendship is. Webster defines it thus: one with another; a mutual love; an attachment by esteem, respect and affection." All this and Christ calls us his friends! What honor and what glory he has bestowed upon us! May we prove worthy of that singular trust.

Far too often we take our friends for granted. We also many times take our Lord for granted, when hourly our hearts should be singing his praise. We take those whom we love as a matter of course, when we should be alert to express to them our sincere appreciation and affection

In our dealings with our friends may we not be true as he is true? Helpful as he is helpful? "Friendship a close association Understanding as he is understanding? Loyal as he is loyal? With this for our aim our friendships here would surely be made in heaven.

It takes so very little, Lord,
To make a hurt heart glad;
A bit of praise, a loving word,
Can cheer one who is sad.
Should we withhold the sincere praise
And go unmindful of
Some kindly overture of one
Who craves our praise, our love.

The friends who walk the way with us
So often need our care
May we reach out a hand to help
Them with the load they bear.
Like thee, O Lord, we would be kind
From dawn to day's far end,
Humbly grateful to thee, Lord,
For thy good gift—a friend.
