LET'S CLIP AND FRAME THIS NEW STAR WEEKLY COVER

"Isn't it lovely?"

"Yes—the subject is good and the colors simply beautiful."

"The inside pictures are fascinating too—I don't know how they get such lovely colorings."

"Well—it's Rotogravure Printing you know and the Star Weekly is noted for its fine Rotogravure work."

"I think this picture section alone is worth the price of the whole paper—but look, in addition here's the magazine section of forty pages, some in colors—a complete Novel and the comics . . . four more pages of comics."

"Yes—and I like this NEW Star Weekly in its new compact Tabloid size."

A NEW AND sparkling appearance on today's pianistic horizon is that of Italian born Mario Delli Ponti, who appears on stage of the Civic Centre auditorium at 8:30 p.m. Tuesday. Mr. Ponti, the second artist in the 1956-57 Prince Rupert Concert Society series, was awarded the Bach Medal in England in 1953, as a "most remarkable" young foreign pianist, following his debut in Milan, Italy, France and Switzerland. The acclaim during his coast-to-coast tour and the invitation of Westminster to make a series of long playing recordings, made his return engagement a foregone conclusion.

Rebekah Lodge Raises $300 at Annual Bazaar

A total of about $300 was realized yesterday afternoon when the Centennial Rebekah Lodge No. 40, IOOF, held its annual Hallowe'en bazaar in the Civic Centre common lounge.

The money will be used to finance the group's yearly projects which include aid for the "Residents Fund" with which the B.C. Oddfellows and Rebekahs are building a home for the aged in Vancouver. The local lodge also helps to furnish the Prince Rupert branch's Arthritis and Rheumatism Society clinic in the Prince Rupert General hospital.

Mrs. J. W. Gilbert as general convener, received the guests in the absence of Noble Grand Mrs. Harry Paulson who was ill.

Individual tea tables were centred with candles, set in Hallowe'en decors of black and orange color arrangements. Serving were Mrs. Harry Quick, Mrs. John Johansen and Mrs. E. Fregin. Directing the kitchen were Mrs. W. S. Stevens, Mrs. H. V. Tattersall and Mrs. Leslie Brain.

Home-cooking table was attended by Mrs. A. E. Wood and Mrs. J. S. Irvine; sewing booth had Mrs. Norman Moorehouse and Mrs. S. V. Cox in charge and novelties were handled by Mrs. John Flewin, Mrs. Emil Petersen and Mrs. Gilbert.

Mrs. J. E. Dowdie convened the candy counter; Mrs. C. J. Wilkinson and Mrs. E. A. Evans handled raffles and Mrs. J. M. Simpson was cashier.

Special prize, a bride's doll and trousseau, was won by Gloria Colussi. Other winners were Mrs. Lester Franklin, grocery hamper; Miss Della Wilkinson, afghan; Mrs. Harry Quick, won the picture donated by Mrs. George Ferguson and Mrs. Emil Petersen was the winner of the foot-stool donated by Mrs. E. A. Evans.

Only 9¢ a serving! Delicious Salmon Royale made with Monarch Tea-Bisk!

SALMON ROYALE

Oven Temperature, hot, 425°F.
8½ inch pie plate—top inside measurement.

Tea-Bisk Crust — Light and Biscuity

To 1½ cups MONARCH TEA-BISK add ⅓ cup water and ½ teaspoon parsley flakes, if desired. Stir briskly with a fork. Dough should be soft but not sticky. Reserve a small piece of dough for stripping. Turn dough on to lightly floured surface and roll to fit an 8½ inch pie plate, leaving crust ½ inch beyond edge of pie plate. Fold under and flute edge of pie shell.

Filling

Flake with a fork ½ pound tin SALMON. Do not drain off liquid. Add ½ cup chopped celery, ¼ cup chopped green pepper, 2 tablespoons chopped onion, ½ cup cream of mushroom soup, 1 lightly beaten egg, 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce, ¼ teaspoon dry mustard, salt and pepper to taste. Mix well and fill pie shell. Roll remaining dough into ½ inch strips. Twist and cross-cross strips on top of filling to carry out sunburst effect. Bake 425 for 15 minutes.

See how Monarch Tea-Bisk turns canned salmon into real company fare. Yet Salmon Royale is easy to make and, best of all, it's substantial good eating for the whole family. Buy New Formula Tea-Bisk today and make Salmon Royale tomorrow.

A busy cook needs Tea-Bisk. Dozens of your favourite treats—pancakes, dumplings, muffins, etc.—can be turned out in half the usual time. So always have Tea-Bisk in your kitchen.
