Two Canadians Injured By Mine May Recover

JERUSALEM (AP)—Two Canadian Army officers severely injured by an exploding land mine Tuesday were still in serious condition today but doctors said "there are good hopes" they will recover.

Maj. Marcel Breault, 37, of St. Hyacinthe, Que., and Maj. George Alfred Flint, 44, of Outremont, Que., were members of a United Nations truce team investigating reported Jordanian activity within the sector guarded by Israeli police when the explosion occurred.

Hospital attendants said today Flint's injuries were more serious than those of Breault. They said Flint suffered multiple abdominal and skeletal injuries. They did not disclose the nature of Breault's wounds.

LONDON (AP)— Workers were busy demolishing the wall of a Walworth district house when the foreman called out: "That's the wrong house." It was, too, and municipal officials had to pay £200 damage.

Softball Game Cancelled

A scheduled Prince Rupert Senior Men's Softball game between Local 708 and the RCMP set for 7 p.m. tonight at Gyro park has been cancelled.

In place of the game, a work party has been called at 7 p.m. at the Oceanside cannery to complete construction of the scorekeepers' booth.

HOTEL MANAGER NOT HOME WHEN BOMB WRECKS HOME

TORONTO (CP)—A time-bomb blasted in the front of a duplex in the fashionable Forest Hill district early today and police said it may have been a carefully-executed threat against one of the tenants.

The explosion, which jarred homes 500 yards distant, demolished the front door of the duplex occupied by William R. Gold, a hotel manager.

Mr. Gold was absent at the time, attending a reception for Rocky Marciano, retired heavyweight boxing champion who is in Toronto for tonight's bout between Archie Moore and Canadian James J. Parker.

OTHER TENANTS AWAY

The explosion blew in windows 100 yards away. Police set the time of the blast at 2 a.m. EDT.

Mr. Gold was on his way home at two o'clock. His wife and family are out of the city.

The other half of the duplex is occupied by mining promoter Patrik O'Sullivan. Police said Mr. and Mrs. O'Sullivan are in Europe.

Investigators said the duplex resembles a single private residence from the street.

Star Studying Jewish Faith

LONDON (AP)—The Daily Express says Marilyn Monroe is studying to become a convert to the Jewish religion.

It attributes its information to an unnamed London rabbi whom it quotes as saying he had been informed of the actress' intentions by Rabbi Robert Goldburg of New Haven, Conn. Goldburg officiated at Miss Monroe's marriage to playwright Arthur Miller in religious rites that followed a civil ceremony.

The Express says the London rabbi reported:

"Rabbi Goldburg gave Marilyn the five books of Jewish law before she sailed from New York. These books contain the basis of our faith. Mrs. Miller reads them for a short period every day.

"Rabbi Goldburg said she will receive further instruction from him when she gets back to New York. Then she will attend a synagogue ceremony, after which she will be recognized by all Jews as a believing and practising Jewess."
