Conflict Between Servia and Bulgaria Over Spoils of War Inevitable

Colonge, Germany, May 21 .-A Serbo-Bulgarian conflict is inevitable should Servia persist in her demands for a revision of the ante-bellum treaty existing between those countries with regard to a division of spoils of war, and if Servia does not submit for reasonable arbitration FOR SALE—Pure bred White Wyandotte poultry, famous Regal strain; also Peerthe question of the disposal of less incubator and breeder; reasonable. the question of the disposal of districts left open by the same treaty, according to a despatch received by the Cologne "Gazette" today from its Sofia correspondent, who says he reached this conclusion after interviewing several Bulgarian ministers and the various party leaders at the Bulgarian capital. Continuing the correspondent says:

conclude an alliance with Austria-Hungary if such a step is necessary to achieve her end. Anti-Servian feeling in Bulgaria is running high and is increasing hourly, and war, if it comes will be bitter."
