CHEER FOR 500 WOUNDED VETS. — Christmas presents for more than 500 wounded servicemen, disabled veterans and their families make a fitting frame for pretty Susan Arons. Susan, a member of the Women's Auxiliary of the 52 Association, didn't go with the gifts, but she was at the annual 52-WMGM Christmas party for the wounded last week, at the Tavern-on-the-Green in New York.

Error In Parcel Delivery Costs Porter Job At Store

NEW YORK (AP)—A porter at Saks Fifth Avenue department store dumped $500 worth of Christmas purchases into an incinerator instead of on a delivery truck.

It turned out that the sales slips were attached to the packages and store officials were in the dark as to who the purchasers were.

In a newspaper ad which started "We are worried and embarrassed," Saks officials appealed to those who shopped on the children's floor Dec. 20 to notify the store, promising that duplicates of the merchandise would be shipped immediately.

Saks officials estimated that efforts to correct the error would cost them about $1,500—three times the value of the merchandise that went up in smoke.

The error cost the porter his job, too.
