GOING TO LONDON TO OFFER CITY TREASURY CERTIFICATES

MAYOR PATTULLO WIRES FROM MONTREAL THAT BANK OF MONTREAL ADVISES THAT HE AND CITY SOLICITOR OFFER CERTIFICATES.

On Wednesday Acting-Mayor Naden received a telegram from Mayor Pattullo, dated Montreal, requesting that certain financial bylaws be passed to assist him in his work of raising funds. In consequence of this the council held a special meeting last night for this purpose, which opened with the reading of Mr. Pattullo's telegram as follows:
Montreal, Que., May 27.
Acting Mayor,
Prince Rupert, B. C.,
Bank thinks it necessary to finance temporarily by treasury certificates and advise us to go to London. Therefore pass bylaw immediately authorizing issue of treasury certificates under Act of 1912 for all debentures authorized by bylaw not already covered by former treasury certificate bylaw. Send to government copies of bylaws and ask for immediate consent, stating this course recommended by Bank of Montreal.

Ask Williams to carefully draw bylaw following bylaw 109. Cable me care Bank, London, when bylaw passed and again when government consent given. Also pass resolution authorizing me to sell certificates and cable when passed. Forward me London certified copy bylaw and resolution. Leave for London in few days. Will wire date sailing.
T. D. Pattullo.

Acting-Mayor Naden made a brief explanation of the telegram, stating that he had had bylaws drafted for the consideration of the council in accordance therewith, at the same time expressing the hope that it would not be necessary for the mayor to dispose of treasury certificates. It was wise, however, in his opinion to give the mayor the authority asked for as it was absolutely

This means a continuous line of steel from Prince Rupert to Winnipeg and Fort William by the end of next year.

BOSTONIANS LEAVE PLEASANT MEMORIES

Final Performance Was Fitting Climax to Their Eight Nights' Engagement.

The Westholme Theatre was crowded to the doors last night for the final performance of the eight nights' engagement of the Juvenile Bostonians. The offering was "Berta's Billions," a very amusing comedy, presented with such animation as to keep the large audience interested every moment. Vera Lockhart played the role usually taken by Thom Hellen in a most acceptable manner.

During the performance nearly every member of the company were presented with beautiful bouquets.

The sensation of the evening was the song by Thom Hellen in the second act entitled "The Rose of Honolulu" which was most pleasingly rendered, the sweetness of the song being enhanced by the extremely pretty setting.

The final performance was such as to leave behind pleasant memories of the Bostonians' visit.

SET FIRE TO WIFE TO PROVE HER INNOCENCE

Bride of a Month Is Dead and Suspicious Husband Is Held for Murder.

Winnipeg, May 20.—A Gallician living here who has only been a month married got some jealous suspicions in his head regarding the conduct of his wife. He accused her of infidelity and in order to prove her guilt or innocence last night he adopted an old Saxon custom of trial by fire. He tied his wife to a post and then deliberately set fire to her, believing that if innocent she would come out of the flames unscathed. The result of the trial by fire is that the bride of a month is dead and her husband is in custody on the charge of murder.

CANADIAN CLUB IS AGAIN DISAPPOINTED

Wright and Debenham, of Scott Expedition, Cannot Attend Luncheon.

Among those taking departure by the steamer Prince George for the south this morning were C. S. Wright and F. Debenham, members of the Scott Antarctic Expedition who have been guests of the former's brother, Mr. A. E. Wright, for the past ten days. Their departure ended the arrangements that had been made by the Canadian Club for a complimentary luncheon to be tendered them on June 7th. The members of the Club sincerely regret that they are thus deprived of the opportunity of hearing some very interesting stories of the expedition told by two men who played conspicuous parts in it.

Mr. Wright yesterday received a telegram which made it imperative for him to leave at once for San Francisco on business.

BORDEN'S CABINET AWAITING RESULT OF DEBATE IN SENATE

NO IMMEDIATE ACTION EXPECTED REGARDING FUTURE POLICY OF THE GOVERNMENT—NO MANDATE FROM PEOPLE FOR NAVAL BILL.

Ottawa, May 30.—The cabinet is awaiting the final move of the senate before taking any action regarding the future policy of the government. What it will be is still the subject of many conjectures, the prevailing opinion seeming to be that Premier Borden is not disposed to go to the country at present, either upon the naval bill or any other question.

The Liberals of the Senate yesterday devoted the discussion of the naval bill very largely to a repudiation of the contention of government leader Senator Loughheed that the government has a mandate from the country for its naval policy. The debate is not expected to be long and a vote is expected early next week, if not before.

Reading Room Popular.

After the council meeting last night City Clerk Woods paid his first visit to the city reading rooms, smoked a pipe there and played a game of checkers. He found it, as everyone does, a very convenient and comfortably fitted up place. A large number have used it during the week, although its opening may not be generally known. The notice given by the committee and posted on the door is wrong in one instance. The closing hour is eleven instead of ten.

CARELESS CITIZENS WILL BE PROSECUTED

Chief Vickers is Getting After Citizens Responsible for Depositing Rubbish on Plank Roadways.

Chief of Police Vickers has received a number of complaints lately from teamsters and automobile drivers in regard to the amount of rubbish including nails, broken glass and other material deposited on streets. Yesterday afternoon on Borden street one of Moore Bros.' cartage horses stepped on a nail which penetrated the animal's hoof some three or four inches. Moore Bros. already have two valuable horses that have been laid off for some time through a similar accident. Chief of Police Vickers told the "News" this morning that it is his intention to prosecute citizens who are responsible for leaving such rubbish on the roadways. There are also complaints concerning goods left on the sidewalks and the police have been instructed to take action against those who are careless in this respect.

James Gullins, who has had charge of the Masset Leader for some months, arrived in the city this morning on the Prince John. Mr. Gullins reports that the Masset Leader has been sold to Frank Traynor of Vancouver.

KAISER MAKES JOB FOR NEW SON-IN-LAW

Remodels German Map and Creates Duchy of Luneburg to Please Daughter.

Berlin, May 26.—The Kaiser is exceedingly anxious that his new son-in-law, Prince Ernest Augustus of Cumberland, should not remain idle. The Kaiser's favorite motto is "Idleness is the mother of all mischief," and he wants his daughter's husband to keep out of mischief.

He, therefore, has decided to give Prince Ernest occupation and on the day of his marriage handed him titles as the Duke of Brunswick and Grand Duke of Luneburg.

The Prince will have a very responsible job amongst the princes of the German Empire and will be considered the equal in rank of the Kings of Saxony and the Prince Regent of Bavaria. He will have to reign over a new state that the Kaiser is now shaping out by the simple process of turning a considerable portion of the Province of Hanover, which belongs to Prussia, into the new Grand Duchy of Luneburg.

Great dissatisfaction is expressed everywhere in Germany at the Kaiser's remodeling of the map of Germany, but the Emperor is absolutely master in these matters and will receive no advice.

His daughter had asked him to create this new grand duchy for the sake of her husband. That was enough for William II.

NICARAGUA CANAL AS A RIVAL TO PANAMA

Nicaraguan Minister Declares It Likely to Be Built After All by the United States.

Washington, May 28.—Another great Atlantic-Pacific waterway, making a ship route between the eastern and western coasts of the United States, two thousand miles shorter than through the Panama Canal, will be built soon by the United States is the opinion of Dr. Salvador Castriello, retiring Nicaraguan minister.

In a statement last night, Dr. Castriello said he believed that a canal treaty would be negotiated between the United States and Nicaragua, and that a canal would be constructed across his country.

The canal treaty, which is an inheritance from the Taft administration, was negotiated by Minister Weizel last winter and has received the approval of the Nicaraguan government.

By its terms Nicaragua for $3,000,000 would grant the United States the exclusive right to construct a canal across Nicaragua by way of the San Juan River and Lake Nicaragua.

DECLARES A GENERAL ELECTION IS REMOTE

No Matter What Course Senate May Take in Regard to the Present Naval Bill.

Vancouver, May 30.—Mr. Green, member of parliament for Kootenay, while in town yesterday declared that the probability of a general election was very remote, no matter what course the senate may take in regard to the naval bill. He said it was obvious that if Borden went to the country and was returned, he has no undertaking that the same course would not be pursued by the senate. An election was extremely improbable before redistribution took place.

ASHES OF LATE POET SCATTERED TO WINDS

Joaquin Miller's Dust Thrown on a Funeral Pyre Built with His Own Hands.

Oakland, Cal., May 26.—The ashes of the late Joaquin Miller, poet of the Sierras, were scattered today among the flames of a funeral pyre built by the poet's own hands. The ceremony was held at the Miller home, "The Heights," surrounded by the picturesque hills of Oakland. The Bohemian Club of San Francisco was in charge of the rites, which were witnessed by more than 500 persons, including the poet's widow and daughter, Juanita, and many old time friends.

The services were short but impressive. At their conclusion Col. John P. Irish of Oakland mounted the steps of the pyre.

"This," said Col. Irish, "is not an occasion for mourning but for rejoicing. We are here not to mourn the death of Joaquin Miller, but to rejoice that through his genius he still lives."

Col. Irish then applied a torch to oil soaked faggots on the pyre. As the flames shot up he took the copper urn in which the poet's ashes had been sealed and gave them to the fire. Instantly a jealous wind whipped the ashes from the flames and bore them away.

Vancouver, May 30.—The city has granted to the widow of Constable Archibald, murdered while on duty, the sum of $2,000. Archibald was on duty three nights ago on the outskirts of the city and failed to report at headquarters at the usual time. As he had not returned home a search was made and his badly beaten body was found in the brush. Burglars that same night had broken into an adjoining mill and looted the safe.

Like the Ash of My Good Cigar

Cy Warman left this morning on the Prince George, to the great disappointment of the many who hoped to have the pleasure of meeting him at the Canadian Club luncheon tomorrow and to listen to his breezy talk. He himself this morning expressed his regrets that he was unable to stay for the luncheon, and as a kind of solacing sop left the following from "Songs of Cy Warman" for the entertainment of Daily News readers:

ASHES.

Sometimes, on the birdless barrens,
Sometimes, by a southern sea
The ghosts of the days that have vanished
Come scurrying back to me.
Then a face o'er my memory flashes,
Like the face of a falling star,
While I am flicking the fading ashes
From the end of my good cigar.

Life's spring with its buds of promise,
Life's summer with rose of June;
But the buds they burst so early
And the roses fade so soon!
A rustle of silk and laces,
The wind of a passing car,
Then gray are the once glad faces,
Like the ash of my good cigar.

CY WARMAN.
