Canucks Move Into 3rd Spot

By The Canadian Press

Vancouver Canucks battled their way into sole possession of third place in the Western Hockey League standings Wednesday while New Westminster Royals moved back into the fourth and last playoff berth.

The Canucks, overcoming a 2-0 deficit, edged Victoria 3-2 in the capital city game. At Edmonton, the Royals went down to a 9-2 defeat at the hands of Edmonton Flyers.

The combined results have made a WHL playoff berth for the Canucks all but a certainty.

With only one game left to play—with the Cougars Friday at Vancouver—Canucks can miss the playoffs only if they lose that game, Calgary wins both its remaining games, and the Royals win one of two.

That would leave Canucks and the Royals tied but the New Westminster club would gain the playoffs because of more goals scored.

Giordano Sets New High In Men's Five Pin League

Joe Giordano rolled a new men's high single Thursday, posting a 383 score in Mixed Five Pin League bowling, but it was not good enough to earn Frosty's more than one point in their A league game with Whalen's.

Front-running Pushovers, taking four points off Shamrocks stretched their point total to 57, four more than second place Fashion Footwear, who last week lagged by only a point.

In B League Orphans and Cook's Jewellers stayed a point apart at the head of the loop as Orphans swelled their lead to 47, taking three points off the Daily News while the jewellers were handing the same treatment to the RCMP entry.

Frosty's cause was aided by Giordano again when he turned in men's high three score, a 774 tally, while A loop's women's high single went to Kay Wood of Whalen's with a 310 while Clara Bellamy of Shenton's posted women's high three score for a 634 three game total.

Team single of 1285 was posted by Headpinners while Shenton's, with 3582, had team three-game high score.

Orphan's Marge Tattersall rolled women's high single in B division, a 276 game, while Skip Storrie of Esso Extras turned in a three-game total of 604 that was high for the night. Men's high single went to Joe Poulin of HMCS Chatham with a 280 game while Joe Costanza of Canfisco turned in a three game total of 676 for men's high three. Canfisco also garnered team high single on an 1105 game while Esso Extras with 3002 took team high three honors.

Last week, Al Adams of Cook's Jewellers went unnoticed on the honors list for a 315 game which was tops for men's high single for the night.

Results:

A League — Pushovers 4, Shamrocks 0; Whalen's 3, Frosty's 1; Headpinners 3, La Gondola 1; Harold's 3, Fowlie & Rutlie 1; Thom Sheet Metal 3, Fashion Footwear 1; Shenton's 3, Esquire 1.

B League — Booth 4, Eby & Sons 0; Canfisco 4, Bob Parker 0; Esso Extras 3, HMCS Chatham 1; Orphans 3, Daily News 1; Cook's Jewellers 3, RCMP 1; Hill's Shoe Store 2, CPA 2.
