Saturday Sermon

By REV. J. A. ROSKAM
First Baptist Church

Last Sunday night at 8:15, our time, my mother left this world and entered into the presence of her Lord and Saviour. During her last short illness she repeatedly expressed a desire to "go Home."

I have a desire to pay tribute to a Christian mother and to express a word of appreciation for the inestimable privilege of a Christian home and parents. I would like to express these sentiments in Church next Sunday, but might not be able to say them, so I am writing them.

I am thankful for parents who did better than send their children to Sunday School and Church; they took them. The question of going to Sunday School or not was no more debatable than the question whether we went to day school or not. When I became a Christian in my late teens, due in large part, to the prayers and influence of a godly mother, the first person I told about it was the one I knew would be pleased the most, — my mother.

To accept the truths, clearly taught in the Bible, that when a person who has personally experienced the Saving Grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, departs from this life, they go directly into His presence. As the Apostle Paul tells us in Philiplans 1:23; and II. Corinthians 5:8; "Absent from the body (and to be) present with the Lord."

I quote in part from a letter written a few years ago to Charles Fuller after he had announced over the radio that the next Sunday he would speak on "Heaven." My mother could have written the same kind of letter, because she had implicite faith in the same wonderful Saviour and the same calm assurance concerning her future.

"Next Sunday you are to talk about Heaven. I am interested in that land, because I have held clear title to a bit of property there for over 55 years. I did not buy it. It was given to me without money and without price. But the donor purchased it for me at tremendous sacrifice. There is a valley of deep shadows between the place where I live and that to which I shall journey in a very short time. I cannot reach my Home in that city of gold, without passing through this dark valley of shadows. But I am not afraid, because the best friends I ever had went through the same valley long, long ago and drove away all its gloom He has stuck by me through thick and thin since we first became acquainted fifty-five years ago, and I hold His promise in printed form, never to forsake me nor to leave me alone. He will be with me as I walk through the valley of shadows, and I shall not lose my way when He is with me.

"I hope to hear your sermon on Heaven next Sunday, but I have no assurance that I shall be able to do so. My ticket to heaven has no date marked for the journey, and no permit for baggage. Yes, I am ready to go and I may not be here when you speak next Sunday, but I shall meet you there some day."
