NEW YORK ((A)) - Charley Goldman, who trained retired heavyweight champion Rocky Marciano and other world titleholders, says Cassius Clay is a throwback to the old-time boxers.

"He says he is the greatest," says Goldman Monday, "Maybe he is. The main thing is that he thinks so. No one has licked him yet. Until someone beat; him he'll have to be the greatest--for now."

"The thing I like about Chy is that he started boxing when he was young, like the old-timers did. He eats, drinks and sleeps boxing. It's his life, He's as cocky as they come and that's good.

"I think he'll beat Doug Jones. If he wants to go after Sonny Liston after that, why not?" He's as big and strong as Liston." CALLS THE ROUND
