Cougars Hold Flyers to Tie; Canucks Trounce Royals 8-4

By The Canadian Press

Edmonton Flyers must show less respect for second-division clubs visiting Edmonton if they wish to enhance their position as leaders of the Western Hockey League.

And New Westminster Royals, second in the league, will never take over from Edmonton unless they can win away from home.

Victoria Cougars, fourth-place club in the WHL, held the Flyers to a 2-2 tie in Edmonton Tuesday night while fifth-place Vancouver Canucks whacked New Westminster Royals 8-4 in Vancouver.

Norm Ullman and Ed Stankiewicz scored for Edmonton while Doug Macauley and Andy Hebenton tallied for Cougars. Flyers were without the services of Bronco Horvath, leading scorer, who sat it out with a gimpy leg injured in a week-end clash with Calgary.

Edmonton led the Cougars 1-0 at the end of the first period and held onto their margin another 20 minutes as the teams split a pair of goals. Cougars scored in the final period on Macauley's surprise backhander.

ONE GAME TONIGHT

Cougars continue on to Saskatoon tonight in the only game scheduled.

In Vancouver, Hugh Barlow racked up a hat-trick to pace the Canuck attack before 3,800 spectators. Phil Maloney, George Ford, Ray Cyr and Billy Dea scored the other Vancouver goals while defenceman Harry Dick was credited with four assists.

Jim Zarie, Gord Fasheway, Bobby Love and Motto McLean counted for the Royals.

Vancouver led all the way with period scores of 3-1 and 5-1. Ford scored the picture goal of the night when he raced down the ice with Bill Wylie and whipped the puck home while goalie Lucien Deshene and the Royal defence stood back anticipating a pass.

Zarie took a wicked body check from Canuck defender Dick in the third period and was removed from the game by stretcher. He suffered a wrenched knee.

Project Spending Shift Urged

VANCOUVER (CP) — Grant McConachie, president of the Vancouver Board of Trade, said Tuesday the board will urge its members to re-schedule project spending to aid in eliminating seasonal unemployment.

The plan was revealed by Mr. McConachie in a statement supporting the principles laid down by the inter-industry brief on seasonal employment submitted to Labor Minister Lyle Wicks.

"I believe that the recommendations . . . could go far toward eliminating the annual economic dislocation which we have accepted as natural for so many years," he said.

His statement said government, business, industry and the individual spent millions annually in large and small projects, many during the spring, summer and early fall months when there were "rush periods and a scramble" to get work done.
