FROM PRIVATE TO GENERAL CONFUSION — This confused G.I. ponders the armful of rank he held in three days. In rapid succession, Gerald Belcher, stationed at Kaiserlautern, Germany, became an ex-PFC, a Corporal, an ex-Corporal, and a Specialist Third Class. Promoted to Corporal, Belcher held that rank all of one day, becoming an S-3C when the Army's new specialist program went into effect the next day. He's the husband of Mrs. Nancy Belcher of Concord, Calif.

Only 79 Pitches Thrown In No-Hit, No Run Game

By The Associated Press

Righthander Elmer Singleton pitched the Pacific Coast League's second no-hitter of the year Sunday as the Seattle Rainiers swept a doubleheader from second-place San Diego.

Singleton allowed but one man to reach first in the 2-0 seven-inning nightcap that put Seattle four full games ahead of the Padres.

Seattle came from behind to win the opener 8-7 in the ninth inning on Vern Stephen's homer.

Singleton tossed only 70 pitches as he chalked up his sixth shutout of the season. The only man who reached first against him was Dick Faber, who walked and was forced at second.

Los Angeles' George Piktuzis hurled a 2-1 no hitter at San Francisco last Thursday.

Sacramento and Portland, Los Angeles and San Francisco, Oakland and Hollywood all split their doubleheaders Sunday.

Portland's Ed Burtschy allowed the Sacramento Solons just two hits and collected a 3-0 shutout in the second game. Sacramento took the opener 5-3.

The nightcap ran only one hour, 17 minutes, the shortest game of the year in Portland.

Sacramento garnered 18 hits off three Portland hurlers in the first game victor. The Beavers got their three runs in the first frame. The Solons went scoreless until the sixth. Al Heist homered in the seventh.

The Angels took the first game from San Francisco 3-2; The Seals won the second 3-1.

Red Munger five-hit Hollywood to a 7-2 win over Oakland after the Oaks took the opening game 5-3. The Stars won the series three games to two.

Sun Eliminates All But 15 In Marathon

LONDON (AP) — British newspapers are burned up about the Amateur Athletic Association's marathon race run Saturday in temperatures near 90 degrees.

Only 15 of 52 starters finished. Six runners went to hospital in a competition reminiscent of last year's Empire Games marathon at Vancouver in which England's Jim Peters collapsed near the finish.

Sgt. Bill McMinnis of the RAF finally won the 26-mile, 385-yard grind in two hours, 39 minutes, 35 seconds.

NEW STATIONS

MONCTON, N.B. (AP) — Airwomen, who were first employed at the RCAF No. 5 supply depot here in 1952, now are living in accordance with new air force policy which concentrates female personnel in larger units.

Clean Get-Away Foiled by Tip

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Acting on a tip, police Friday searched the cell of Carrol D. Farrar, convicted killer of a policeman, and found a "soap gun" obviously intended for use in an escape attempt.

The handle of a pistol had been artfully carved from jail soap and a broken scissor handle made a good trigger guard. But the makeshift barrel was missing and police began questioning Farrar.

Farrar explained he had broken off the pistol barrel "to wash some towels."
