Toronto Makes Playoffs

Bruins Lose Out In Hectic NHL End

By The Canadian Press

Now it can be told, no ifs or buts. Montreal Canadiens oppose New York Rangers and Detroit Red Wings face Toronto Maple Leafs in the Stanley Cup semi-final playoffs.

Leafs slipped into the fourth and last playoff berth and Detroit took second place Sunday night in one of the most hectic endings in National Hockey League history. The best-of-seven semi-finals, open Tuesday at Montreal and Detroit.

Leafs, who battled Boston Bruins for fourth place with a 2-0 shutout over Wings Sunday at Detroit. Wings finished second despite their loss by virtue of Canadiens' two weekend wins over Rangers. The Habs walloped New York 7-2 at Montreal Saturday then defeated Rangers 3-1 Sunday at New York.

Chicago Black Hawks, who wound up at the bottom, threw a scare at Leafs Saturday by tying them 1-1 at Toronto then dumped Boston Bruins 3-2 Sunday at Boston.

SLOAN INJURED

Leafs bewildered Red Wings Sunday with a tight-checking game and Harry Lumley made only 14 saves to collect his third shutout of the season.

George Armstrong and Dick Duff scored the goals and each drew one assist. Tod Sloan, brilliant centre for the two wingers, assisted on the opener but was hurt later and missed the final period. He suffered a cut on the back of his head, which required eight stitches, and a concussion. However, he is expected to be in shape for Tuesday's engagement.

The win, watched by 14,332 fans, was Toronto's fifth victory in 35 road games this season.

Canadiens spotted Rangers a pair of first-period goals and then romped away with seven of their own Saturday before 13,643 fans at Montreal.

Rookie Andy Hebenton and Larry Popein scored at 7:25 and 8:15, respectively, for New York. Bernie Geoffrion's two goals and singles by Jean Beliveau, Doug Harvey, Henry Richard, Floyd Curry and Bert Olmstead nullified them.

Canadiens' 45th win Sunday was a record, eclipsing the mark of 44 set by Detroit in 1950-51. It also was their first win this season in New York.

Another league mark was erased when Olmstead set up a goal for Beliveau in the second period to gain credit for his 56th assist. The former mark of 55 was set by Wings' Ted Lindsay in 1949-50.

Geoffrion and Curry were the other Montreal snipers.

Rookie Bronco Horvath robbed Montreal netminder Jacques Plante of a shutout with less than two minutes left.

Beliveau's goal was his 47th of the season. He took the league's scoring title and Art Ross Trophy with a total of 88 points.

LARGE CROWD NOISY

The game was delayed several times to clear the ice of debris—including a dead fish—thrown from the crowd of 15,203.

Defenceman Gus Mortson scored on a 49-foot screened shot midway through the third period to give Hawks their tie at Toronto. Duff fired Toronto's goal at 13:27 of the second period before a crowd of 13,333.

One of the largest Boston crowds of the season—13,707 fans—turned up to see Chicago dump Bruins. It was only the seventh time in 32 years that Boston missed the playoffs.

Linemates George Sullivan, Harry Watson and Eddie Litzenberger accounted for the Hawks' scoring. Johnny Peirson gave Bruins a brief 1-0 lead early in the game.

PALMERSTON, N. Z. (Reuters)—The West Indies today finished its cricket tour of New Zealand here by beating New Zealand Colts by an innings and 35 runs with more than a day to spare in a three-day match.

Final scores were: West Indies 321 for eight declared; Colts [illegible] and 155.

WHL Also-Ran Clubs End Year With Wins

By The Canadian Press

Brandon Regals and Seattle Americans, their playoff hopes dashed, closed out the regular Western Hockey League schedule in a blaze of glory Saturday night.

The Americans edged Victoria Cougars 3-2 in overtime and Brandon said "wait until next year" with a 6-5 win over Winnipeg Warriors.

The playoff battle lines were drawn Friday night when Vancouver Canucks finished first in the Coast Division followed by Victoria and New Westminster Royals.

Winnipeg finished first on the Prairies trailed by Calgary Stampeders, Edmonton Flyers and Saskatoon Quakers.

NO PUSHOVERS

In other games Saturday, Edmonton and Saskatoon gave notice of the fireworks ahead by hammering through a scoreless overtime session for a 2-2 tie and Vancouver came from behind to beat New Westminster 5-4 in overtime.

Playoffs open tonight with Edmonton at Calgary in the first of a best-of-five series.

The Coast Division kicks off a three-team, two-game round robin with New Westminster at Victoria Tuesday.

Al Leader, WHL president, said last week the players will fight over an $33,100 pool—"no doubt the biggest incentive ever offered in minor league hockey."

In Seattle Saturday Victoria went ahead 1-0 and 2-1 before Pete Durham tied it and rookie Val Fonteyne won it with an overtime goal at 1:05.

Rudy Filion scored the other Seattle goal. Victoria marksmen were Bruce Carmichael and Nelson Bulloch.

In the other Coast game, Royals went ahead 4-2 on goals by Ron Matthews, Moose McLean, Gord Fashoway and Blinky Boyce.

George Ford and Tom McCarthy scored the first goals of the game for Vancouver. Ray Cyr with two and Bob Kabel scored the others. Cyr's game-winning goal came at 1:54 of overtime.

LONG SHOT PAYS OFF

In Edmonton, defenceman Bob Chrystal scored on a 40-foot shot with 90 seconds to go to give the Quakers a 2-2 tie before 3,200 fans.

Chrystal scored with Edmonton a man short. Bill McCreary tallied the other Quaker goal while Don Poile and Ed Stankiewicz scored for Edmonton.

At Brandon, defenceman Jim Hay triggered two goals for the Regals and others went to Ray Manson, George Senick, Murray Wilkie and Doug Bentley.

Winnipeg marksmen were Paul Masnick with two, and Eric Nesterenko, Hugh Barlow and Barry Cullen.

Cullen's goal, his 38th of the season, was a league record for rookies. He snapped the mark with just 34 seconds left in the contest.

Instructions by Bob Feller Pay Off for Tribe Slugger

By The Associated Press

When Cleveland Indians opened their spring training camp in Tucson, Ariz., Rocky Colavito, a muscular young outfielder, approached Bob Feller.

"Hey, Bob," he said, "will you throw me some curves when you get in shape? I figure that if I can hit curves as well as I can hit fast balls, I'll do all right."

Feller's lessons must have paid off because today Colavito shows a smart .462 batting average on 12 hits in 26 trips to the plate.

He also leads Indians in runs-batted-in with 12 and has hit three home runs. One was a grand slammer and two Sunday enabled his club to whip New York Giants 8-6 in Los Angeles.

Colavito, who got into five games with Indians last year, spent most of the season with Indianapolis of the American Association. Although he hit only .268, he knocked in 104 runs and hit 30 homers.

INDIANS SHARE LEAD

The Cleveland victory was the seventh straight and enabled the Indians to keep pace with New York Yankees atop the combined Grapefruit-Citrus circuit. Each has a 7-2 record.

Yanks, for their part, seem to have come up with a find, too, in Mark Freeman, a 24-year-old right handed pitcher. He started against Cincinnati at Tampa and held the power-laden Redlegs scoreless for four innings, giving up only two hits.

It wasn't until the ninth that Yanks were able to push over two runs and win the game 4-3.

The world champion Brooklyn Dodgers polished off Chicago White Sox 4-1 with Roy Campanella hitting his first home run of the spring. Brook's record now shows three victories in nine games.

STAN HITLESS

Pittsburgh's two-man pitching staff, Bob Friend and Dick Littlefield, came up with a rare accomplishment while Pirates were blasting St. Louis Cardinals 7-2 at St. Petersburg. They combined to hold Stan (The Man) Musial hitless. Musial now has gone to the plate nine times without connecting. Someone will pay.

Frank Sullivan, Bob Porterfield and Leo Kiely of Boston Red Sox also turned in a slick pitching performance, blanking Philadelphia Phillies 9-0 at Sarasota. Gene Stephens and Don Buddin each hit a home run.

Roy Sievers, Washington first baseman who won the holdout title this spring, clubbed a two-run homer in his first official appearance at bat. Senators went on to beat Kansas City As 7-5 in Orlando.

Chicago Cubs turned back Baltimore Orioles 6-3 at Scottsdale, Ariz., when Walt Moryn broke a three-all tie with a three-run homer in the eighth inning. At Lakeland, Detroit Tigers won their second game by crushing Milwaukee Braves, also 6-3.

Remember When

By The Canadian Press

New York Rangers set the National Hockey League record for the fastest four goals in a game against Chicago four years ago at New York, Don Raleigh, Ed Slowinski and Wally Hergesheimer, the latter twice, all scored within two minutes and 10 seconds as Rangers won 10-2. Rangers wound up fifth that season, Chicago last.

Presentation to Pipe Band Highlights 'Spiel Opening

A presentation to the 120th West Coast Harbor Defence Troop Pipe Band highlighted opening ceremonies of the Fifth Annual Prince Rupert Curling Club bonspiel declared officially open Saturday night by Mayor George E. Hills.

The garagemen now meet La Gondola, league winners in the first game of the finals tomorrow night.

In a hectic finish, Sunrise ate into an 11-point lead enjoyed by Frizzell's with three minutes left in the final stanza of the senior contest.

Sunrise missed their bid to overtake their opponents with less than a minute to play when Frizzell's were awarded two technical fouls by referee Bill Morrison and Art Helin fouled out.

John Newton, who contributed 19 points to the Sunrise cause missed both technical shots and sank one of the personal foul free throws to bring the greenshirts within two points. Frizzell's outscored 13 to 10 in the last frame, kept the ball out of reach for the remaining seconds of the game.

Helin and Jim Johnson with 14 points each led the garagemen who were ahead 16-6, 20-16 and 31-26 at the quarter, half and three-quarter mark.
