

BIG PROJECT ON HIGHWAY 16

'A major undertaking in improvement of Highway 16 is building of a new crossing of the Copper River east of Terrace. Dawson and Wade are approach, and tenders have been called for a new bridge that will be closer to the river's confluence with the Skeena and will eliminate two present constructing a new 3.16 mile bridges, one over the Copper

River slough and the other. a narrow suspension bridge over the river itself. River waters have been diverted while concrete work is being done for the new bridge, for which Ben Ginter Construction has contract for substruc- adian Club's masquerade ball in Easter party for members' childture. Entire job means a wider and shorter crossing mileage-

NEW FOLDER

ON FERRIES

ing Alaska's brand new ferry system now operating through the inside passage waters of southeastern Alaska is available from the Alaska Travel Divi-

each of the eight coastal cities served by the 450-mile ferry system, attractions along the way, and the 353-foot auto and passenger vessels themselves.

Too, a large map shows the ferry system in relation to the state's road network, the Alaska Highway, and Canadian highway access to the southern terminal of the system at

of sailings for the summer months May through Septem-

By STEVIE STEPHENSON

Rupert and Miss A. A. Connors

Mrs. W. H. Wandl of Prince.

Also available is a schedule

Described in the folder are sion, Juneau.

Prince Rupert.

four-color folder describ-

Need tor improved educational, services tor

More can be done for the nat-problem through the appoint-they possess where the white rye population through improved ment of an Indian claims com- man has not spoiled it." educational and health services mission, he said. than through payment of large sums resulting from land claims, such a commission is of sec-Biberal candidate John Magor ondary consideration when it said at a public meeting in Mas-| comes to finding the real an-set Friday night. ""There is no question that the Handing over large sums of ed Japanese competition and drown has a tremendous obliga- money which would quickly be tion towards the native people; spent and perhaps hasten the for the land it once took from break-up of native family life them without any treaty being would, in fact, do more harm signed," Mr. Magor pointed out. than good at this time."

dies age 45

Figure He was born July 28, 1917, at Port Clements and came to Skeeha River district in 1925. *He was employed by the Cassiar Packing Company for the ces of finding satisfactory empast 30 years. He was a master ployment are very small."

hel, all of Prince Rupert, and to the native.

will be delivered to a person's successful dance, Friday night one sister, Georgina (Mrs. Frank) "It is criminal to try to gain home." Morrison) of Vancouver.

"But the appointment of swer to the native problem.

Fone of the first undertakings: Mr. Magor suggested instead of a Liberal government would that the main approach to the Mission and Queen Charlotte be to settle this long-standing problem lay in better prepara- City. tion for the native to take his full part in Canadian life.

"One method of doing this; would be the setting up of vocational training services for native students while they are still in school or which would be Edgar Thomas Snidal, 45, of available to them immediately $836 Second Avenue West, died after graduation," he said. "The In Prince Rupert General Hos-problem of young native men; pital Sunday after a lengthy ill- and women entering the world is that they have a strike against them in the first place through racial discrimination and, if on top of this, they have no skilled. training of any kind, their chan- for Terrace.

He is survived by his wife direction, as well as in improving indication that the growth will from Newfoundland has joined Myrtle, one daughter Inga, two health services wherever post continue. It is imperative that the field staff.

Sons, George and James, also sible, that the white man should the post office department insons, George and James, also first endeavor to pay off his debt stitute a system whereby mail. The Badminton Club held a any donations be made to the to the development of their own Terrace is close to that figure riety program. Alfred Faithful Cancer Fund. They may be left spirit of enterprise and resource- now."

Groundfish landings down nearly one third

Jor the week ending March 16, compared with 17,000 pounds Need for greater emphasis on pital. Signording to the fish marketing last year; grey cod 74,000 pounds public relations was discussed by Groundfish landings, compar-pounds, compared with 136,000 Scout movement Friday. gd with the same period last year, pounds last year; herring, 1,277 Mr. Norman was guest of honwere down by about 30 per cent, tons, compared with 6,038 tons or at a dinner sponsored by the Hing cod and flounders were up, pounds, none before; prawns Scouters in attendance, avis on long action, but being the second solution of the second formal went on the Ter-Lake, Vancouver Island, to spend

Spring salmon landings con- pared to the week last year were stresses role none before; minkfeed 55,000 ing with local leaders in the Boy However, landings of grey cod, last year; shrimp in shell 6,900 area—group—committee, with Saturday by plane from Strath-

ht the Northern B.C. Power. | fulness which they have shown | Mr. Howard said that he ex- his bass fiddle.

Whove the same period last year, compared with 39,000 pounds last race. Saturday, after his talks Easter holidays with her parents.

Accompanying Mr. Magor, campaign manager J. D. Mc-Rae told the meeting that a Liberal government would take positive steps to protect B. C. fishermen against unwarrantwould undertake a complete review of the recommendations of the North Pacific Fisheries Commission in this respect.

The two also visited Skidegate

Home delivery ot mail asked lerrace

Frank Howard, New Democratic candidate for Skeena, announced in Terrace that he has been in touch with the postmaster-general asking for immediate institution of a letter carrier, home delivery service

Mr. Howard said: "Our com- from Ireland have joined the munity has grown considerably nursing staff of Miller Bay Hos-The speaker said it was in this in the past few years, with every pital, and Miss Laura Martin

'in the recreation hall. Victor, the natives' support in this elec-| "The post office department. Wells was in charge of the ar-Services will be held Wed-tion through promises of large has a formula which sets out the rangements. Reggie Mason and nesday at 3 pm at Ferguson sums of money immediately in number of homes and business John Pahl provided the music. Funeral Home with Rev. J. A. the offing," he continued. "This places which must exist before, Hesje conducting, in lieu of flow-makes an appeal to their phys-; a letter carrier service can be. The Stringbusters entertained rs, the family has asked that ical comforts and diversions, not put into effect. I am sure that the patients recently with a va-

> pected a survey will be conducted within the next month or two: Dr. G. W. J. Fiddes spent a land that home delivery mail few days at Port Simpson on service will come into effect medical patrol. He left by boat | shortly afterward.

Fgineer was a guest at the hoscompared with 57,000 pounds John Norman of Prince George, wepork.

URed spring and white spring last year; ling cod 2,000 pounds field commissioner for the nor-Vancouver to attend a refresher Then spring and work and compared with 1,000 pounds last thern area for the provincial course in x-ray work at Van-600 pounds respectively, at Prince | year; flounders 4,000 pounds, | Boy Scout Association, in a meet-

Jeona Lodge School, Shawnigan Dr. and Mrs. W. S. Kergin.

PERSONALS

Cheryl Kergin arrived home

|| Saturday night for Vancouver to |

pattend the regional conference.

Scattle, 4 4

conver General Hospital.

Dr. G. Ebel spent the week in

-C. Krutz, regional sanitary en- |

George Eaton left Friday for

Thespians bring home honors from one-act play festival

Elated with their showing in ary school theater group under by Kemano Valley Players. the Skeena District Drama Fes- the direction of Miss Janelle The big winner was Terrace tival in Terrace, Prince Rupert Hayden was named by adjudi-|Little Theatre's production of entrants plan public presenta- cator Mrs. Gwen Pharis Ring-|George Bernard Shaw's "How He tion of both plays tomorrow wood as the best high school play Lied to Her Husband" directed night at 8 in the Civic Centre. 'entered, and Miss Hayden was by Miem van Heek, who received took the best supporting actor Admission charge of 50 cents named best director of the high best director award. It will rep- award as Burrows. Janelle vill help defray costs of sending school presentations. the two plays to Terrace. The one-act comedy "Sunday entry of Noel Coward's "Family finals in Penticton. Costs Five Pesos" entered by the Album" tied for second place Booth Memorial junior second- with "Dust of the Road" staged

The Daily News

CITYPAGE

writte Kilbert Emily Frews Lib.

Monday, April 29, 1963

Italo-Canadian Club

This was announced at the comed and installed.

pays off fountain bills

arrangements.

iwas no damage.

Prince Rupert Little Theatre's Columbia one-act play festival as Jane, and costumes arrang-resent the region at the British Hayden won special mention

In town Friday in advance Proceeds from the Italo-Can- The next event planned is an of preparations for the official inaugural voyage of Alaska February have paid off long out- ren under six years of age. The Marine highway ferry Malas-| Women's Auxiliary is making pina this month, was Richard transportation specialist with tioned in Prince Rupert. Two new members were welthe state of Alaska depart-Firemen responded to a call to chimney fire at the Grand layed, but work will begin soon Cafe Sunday at 1:40 a.m. There inaugural trip, Berg said.

Roxanne Erwin brought for Prince Rupert the best actress award for her portrayal of Lavinia in "Family Album." And in the same play, Len Reed ed by Iona Campagnolo received special mention. Best actor was Campbell Lanc of Terrace, formerly of Prince Rupert, who played in the Terrace entry. Best supporting actress was Ruth Hallock, also of Best visual presentation was "Portrait of a Gentleman in Slippers" by Bulkley Valley Players whose lead, Al Webb of Smithers, formerly of Prince Rupert, received special mention.

Besides capturing over-all honors, Booth school's theatre group and "Sunday Costs Five Pesos" came in for other awards. Cast member Geraldine Fanter was named best high school actress, and Leslie Clayton received honorable mention.

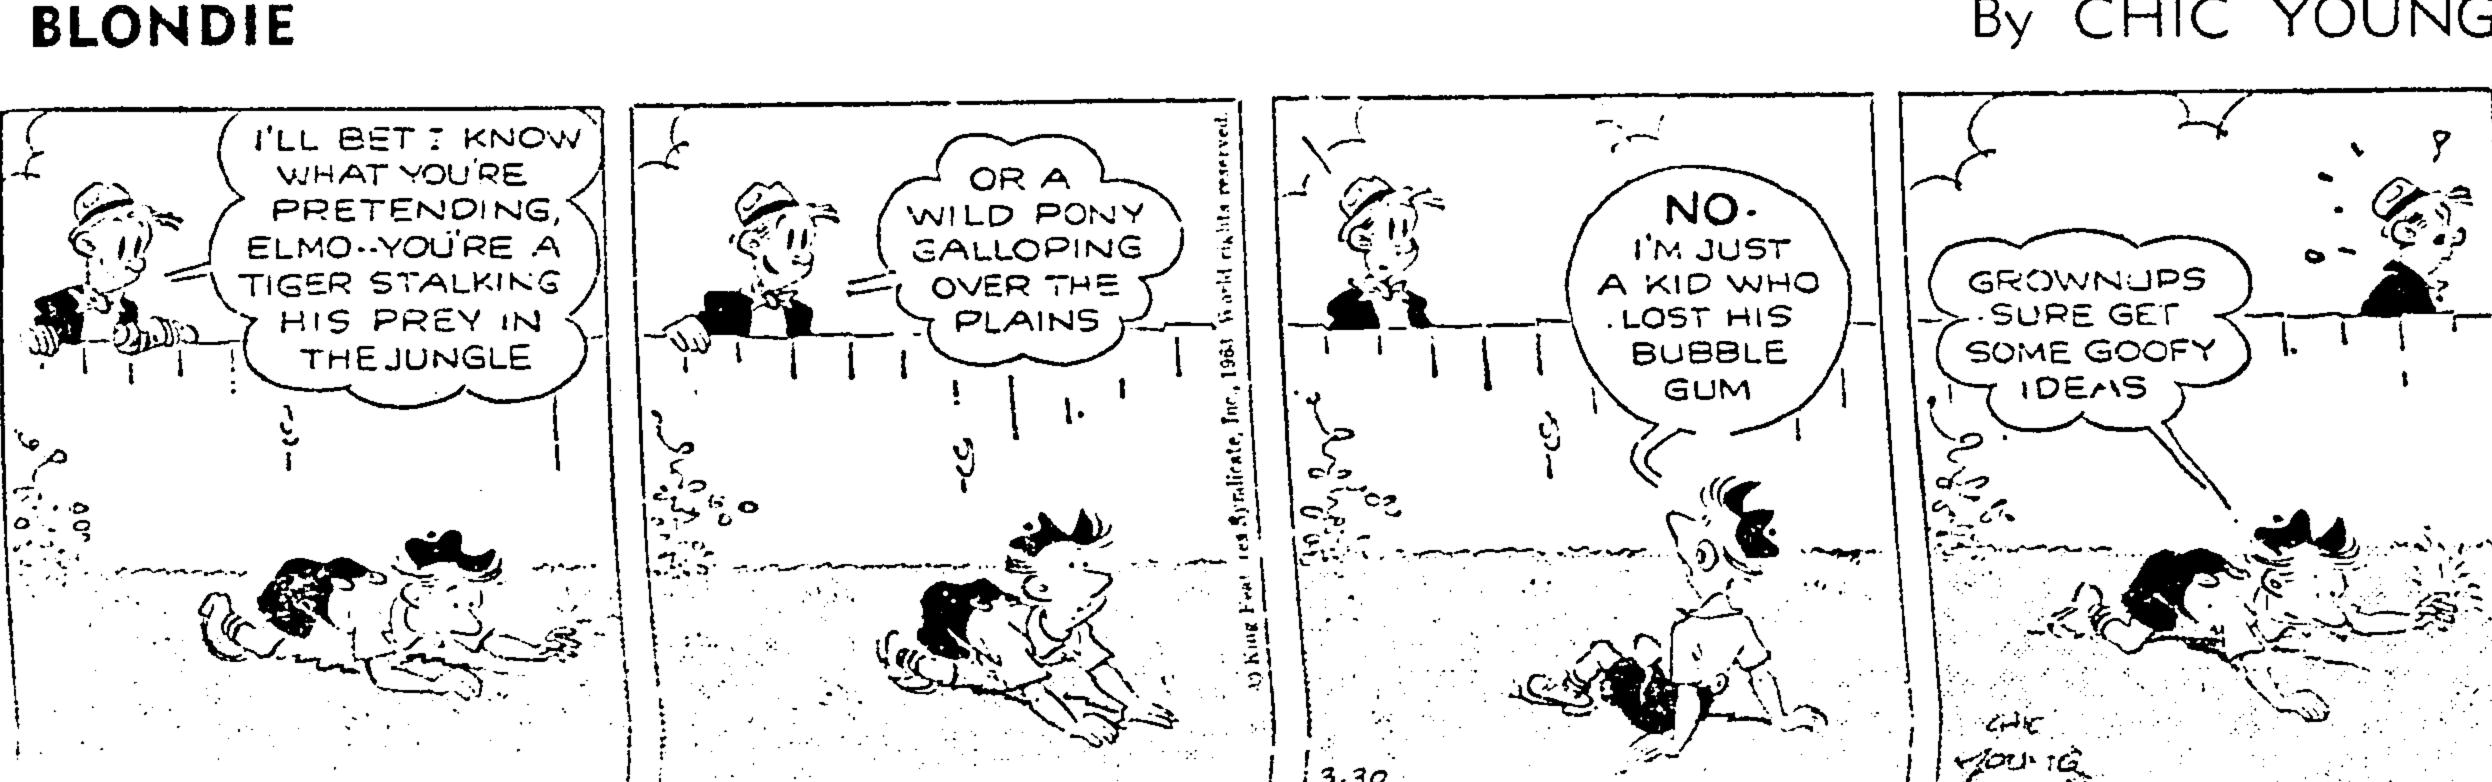

New sanitarian

William Withers was expected to arrive today to take over his new duties as senior sanitarian A. Berg. above, of Juneau, for the Skeena Health Unit, sta-

Mr. Withers, who suceeds Maument of economic development frice Rondelet who has gone to and planning. Prince Rupert sanitarian duties at Nelson, will come in for a lot of pub- trained here four years ago and licity through magazine and was sanitarian at Smithers benewspaper writers taking the fore being transferred to Haney 'about two years ago.

By AL CAPP

By CHIC YOUNG

LI'L ABNER

WE BOTH KNOW THAT I

STRIP WITH

YOU, DON'T WE-PARTNER!

standing bills for building of

Jubilee Fountain on Third Av-club's most recent meeting, which was well attended. Owing fountain square have been de-with Joseph Petri in charge.

to weather, final touches to the

THE HEART OF JULIET JONES

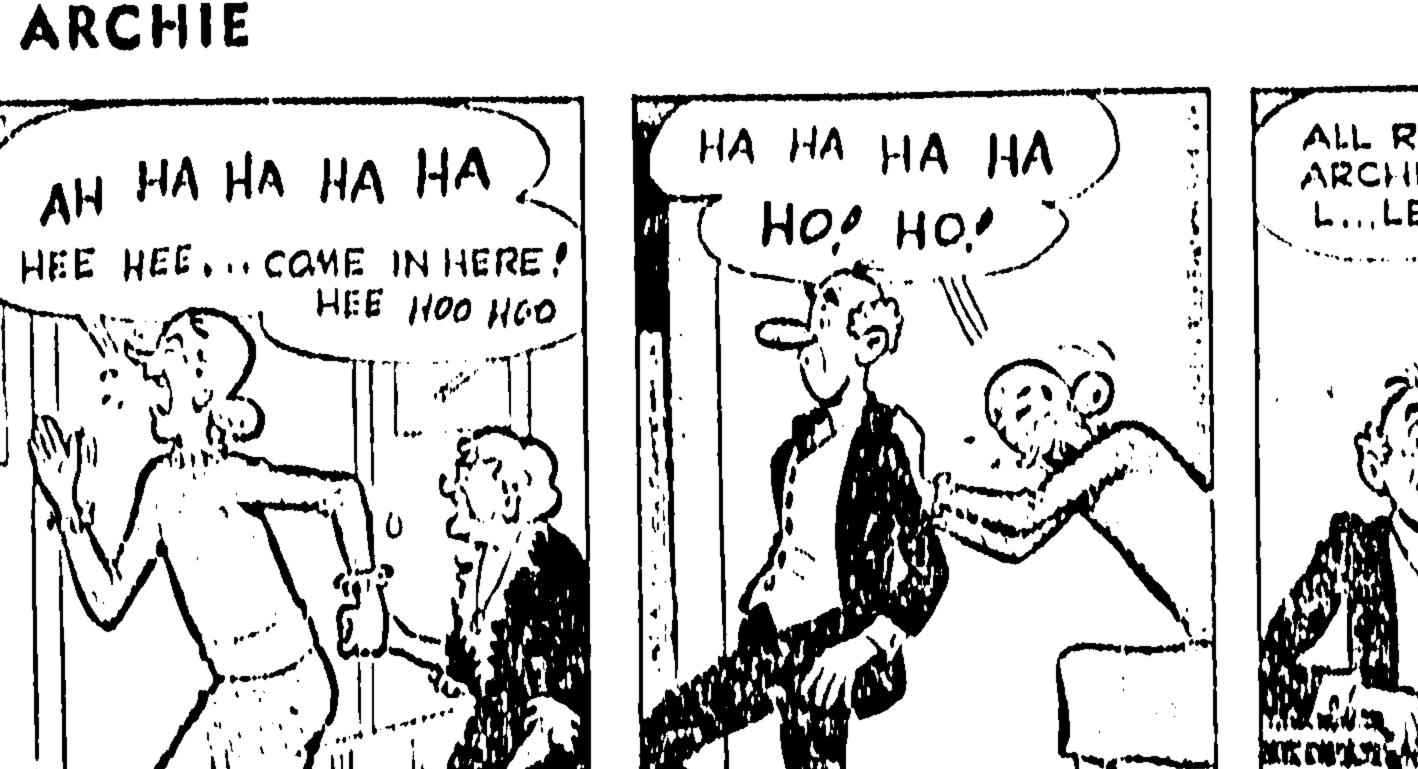

LARRY BRANNON

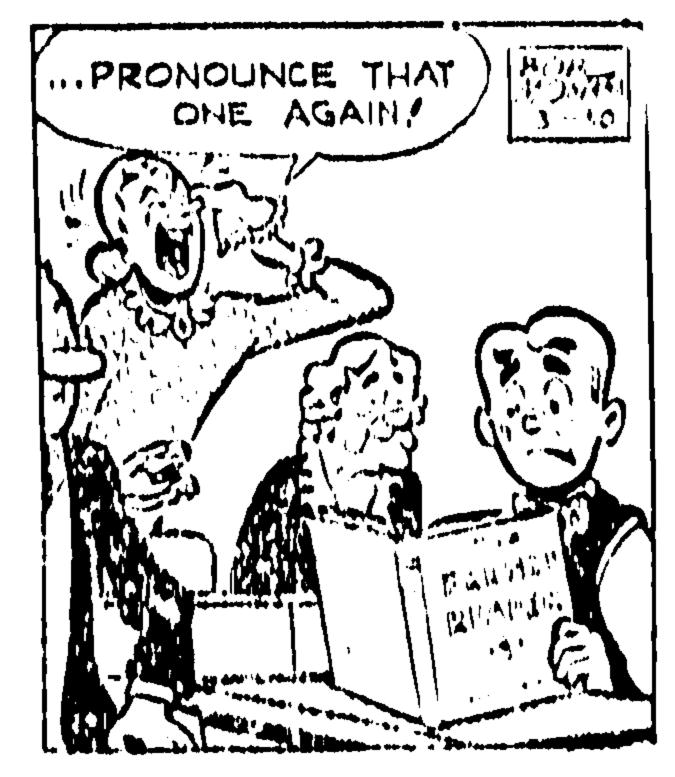

ARCHIE

AH AH AH HA

THE RESERVE OF THE PARTY OF THE

BY BOB MONTANA

iiiiTotal landings in pounds com- year. DOUGLAS-BURKHARDT RITES

Wedding vows pledged in Cloverdale and Mrs. Len Carter and Mrs. United Church of England, Rev. John Starchuk who chose a and Mrs. Len Carter and Mrs.

itu Prince Rupert was solemnized F. H. Golightly officialing. Thtor of Mr. and Mrs. Clus Burk- oyster white gown with a mist lacs. There of Mr. and Mrs. this burk-inards of Cloverdale, became the sequin and pearl crown and she the bride, was groomsman.

The couple have taken up resi-carried a hand bouquet of pink. A small reception was held dence at 933 West First Avenue. Mr. and Mrs. James Douglas and white carnations. 33 Fortune, Newfoundland, The VELLOW DRESS simple yellow dress with mauve Len Jones. Cliven in marriage by her accessories. She carried a hand! For a motoring trip to Prince dif Sovercome account and anti- father the bride chose a simple bouquet of white and mauve li- Rupert the bride chose to wear at the Liberal hall. Mr. Golightly The groom is employed at the proposed the bridal toast, Serv- Prince Rupert Fishermen's Co-Wremony took place at the Her only attendant was Mrs. ing were Henry Burckhardt, Mr. Operative.

.