Canucks tied with Totems for top spot

By THE CANADIAN PRESS All eight teams in the Western Hockey League went into the fray Wednesday night, produced some strange scores, and set the Northern standings into a neat and awfully tight pat-

Vancouver Canucks riding high in first place with Seattle Totems, got drubbed 11-4 by Edmonton Flyers; Seattle lost 2-0 to Portland Buckaroos, top team in the south: Spokane Comets! knocked over Calgary Stampeders 4-1 and Los Angeles Blades edged San Francisco Seals 2-1.

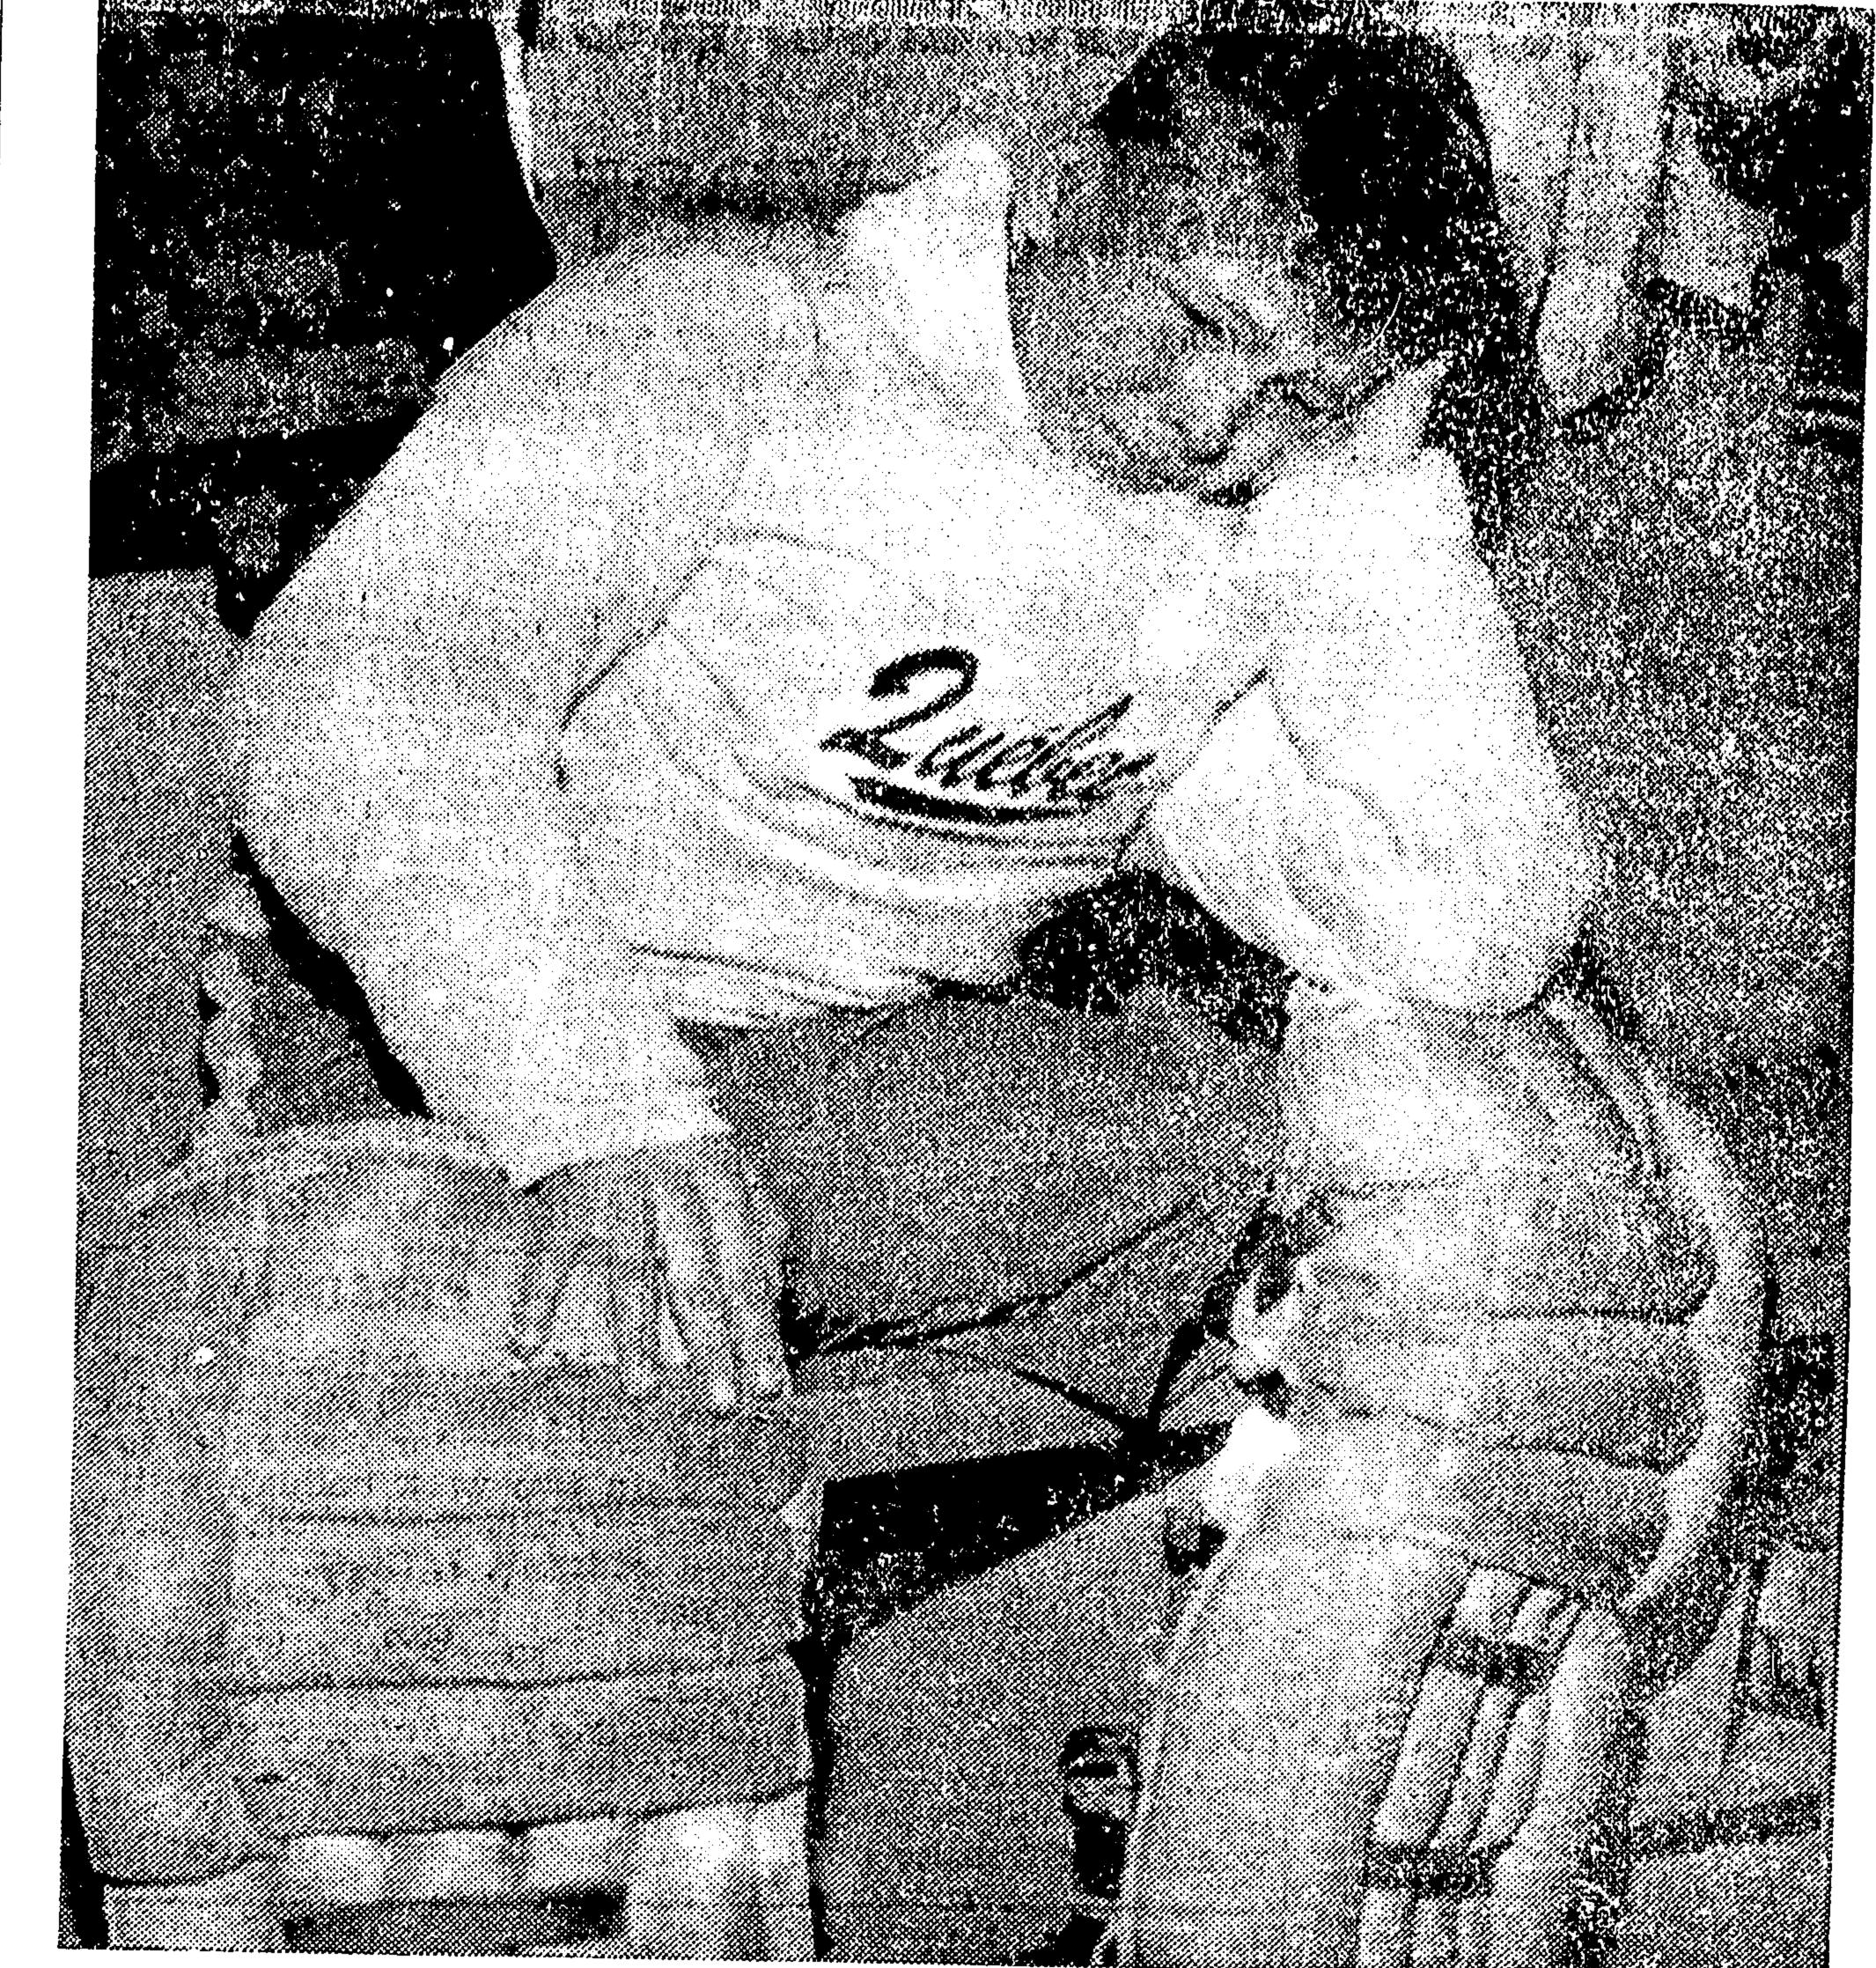

For triumphant Edmonton, in a last-ditch fight with Calgary for a playoff spot, the score almost reversed the year's worst statistic when the Flyers lost! 12-1 January 26 to Spokane.

Wednesday's results left Seattle and Vancouver in a firstplace tie with 68 points and Calgary and Edmonton also tied with 46.

Ray Kinasewich fired three goals in the Edmonton victory while John Miszuk had a single and five assists. Only 1,500 fans were out for the kill.

Bill McNeill had two and the other Edmonton goals went to Doug Messier, Ray Ross, Norm Corcoran, Bo Elik and Jack Mc-Intyre. Dave Duke, Bob McCusker, Al Lebrun and Adam Keller scored for Canucks.

In Portland, the Buck's goals were pumped in by Jack Bionda and Tom McCarthy. Throughout the game—played before 9,210 --- Buckaroos maintained steady pressure on Seattle's forwards.
