"TAKING THE PLUNGE?"—Cheerfully climbing into the plane the world-record parachute jumper Colette Duval of France, followed by her fiancee, G. Delamare, waves to crowd prior to the couple's dual parachute jump at the Temploux, Belgium, air meet. WITNESSES TO WRITE BULGANIN

VICTORIA (CP)—Jehovah's Witnesses, 5,000 of them meeting in district assembly, voted unanimously Saturday night to write Premier Bulganin of Russia demanding the release of 10,000 fellow witnesses from concentration camps.

The resolution was proposed by administrator A. F. Danley of Toronto, western organizer. Mr. Danley said more than 9,000 of the group "are or have been" in camps at Vorkuta and in the Siberian regions of Tomsk and Irkutsk.

It stated witnesses "are not concerned with the politics of the world," and asked Bulganin "examine the possibility" of allowing a Jehovah delegation into Russia "to visit our Christian brothers who, we trust, will be freed before long by your orders."
