courageous leadership

"Canadian people hunger for things like interna-"Mr. Pearson is following the honest course of not tional respect, a sound and expanding economy, trying to bribe the electorate with promises to brave decisions and strong direction at the seat of government. There are impressive indications today that these are the things Canadians do feel starved of. Not pie in the sky or pie on a plate but the dignity of a national character that reflects courage and resolve. This is what Liberal leader Lester B. Pearson is offering the voters he talks to in the opening stages of the federal election campaign. In doing so he is showing courage and, yes, just plain guts."—Toronto Telegram

the most complete team

"There will be a government, and it must be made up of men of government stature; a team of political leaders and administrators capable of assuming ministerial responsibilities. On this basis, the most complete team seems to be the Liberals. Mr. Pearson has already held an important ministry with success. He is surrounded by a number of men with a feeling for public affairs, realistic ideas and administrative experience."—Le Devoir
