Moose, RCMP Eliminated From 10-Pin Playdowns

By BOB RUDDERHAM

Playoffs in the Men's Ten Pin Bowling League got under way last Wednesday night and two teams were eliminated—Moose and the RCMP. This year a new system for playoffs was tried with all the regular teams getting a chance for the playoff championship. The first week of playoffs, a total point series with handicaps, was to eliminate two teams. Next week, two more teams will be eliminated and the final night will see the final two teams fight it out for the playoff championship.

Last night the handicaps played a big part in determining the team position. The Canadian Pacific Airlines carrying a 136 pin handicap for five games were high for the night with a 4317 total. The Miller's Cigar Store team were a close second with 4302 which included a 65-pin handicap. The third place spot was won by City Transfer with 4256. The Transfermen were the only team to bowl scratch. In fourth and last place for the playoff spot was Albert and McCaffery who scored 4243 which included a 25-pin handicap.

Fifth spot was won by the Moose who were not too far behind the Albert and McCaffery team with 4146 and in the final spot, the RCMP scored 3823. High single game was rolled by Albert and McCaffery in their last game of the night, 933. High three games disregarding handicap was rolled by City Transfer.

High single game was rolled by Jake Dewagd with 232. He was followed closely by Frank Comadina and Bob Rudderham who each had a 231. Others to crack the 200 mark were Hemphill with 219, McMeekin 217 and 201, Sheppard 211, Bury with 209, Kinslor 206, Giordano 202, Watson 201 and Lord 200. High three for the evening was Scoop Bury with 941. Norm Kinslor scored 934, Joe Giordano 934, Frank Comadina 923, Al Sheppard 927, Tom McMeekin 916 and Bob Rudderham with 907.

Winnipeg Club PeeWee Tourney Threat

GODERICH, Ont. (CP) — The young Canada pee wee hockey tourney narrowed toward the finals in the three top divisions today, with a western entry rising on the horizon as a big threat for the grand championship. That will be decided Saturday night.

Winnipeg Mustangs Thursday blanked three opponents for a total of 16 goals and tonight will meet either Toronto Ted's Pals or York township for the AA series title. Pals are present champs.

Titles also will be decided today in the A and B series groupings.

The tourney is a sudden-death program — lose once and you're out. The age limit for players is 12 years.

In Thursday's action St. John's Nfld., were beaten 7-1 by Mimico Faustinas. York township later beat Mimico 6-2. Brampton defeated Waterloo 7-0 in the only A series game.

Ted's Pals beat Hamilton Pathers 10-0 but settled for a 3-3 tie with Toronto Shopsy's. But under pee wee rules Pals were given the game on shots on goal.

East York and Wexford tied 4-4 with the game going to Wexford for outshooting its rivals.

Winnipeg Mustangs started off with a 4-0 win over London, had an easy time with Sarnia 10-0, and had to go all out to beat Wexford Lions 2-0.

Four of the Mustangs accounted for 12 of the 16 goals. They were: Amundson, four; Cruickshank, three; Kitch, three; and Lamond two.

Scarboro Lions were eliminated in the AA series by Toronto Shopsy's, 4-2.
