SNOW HALTS WORK

DUNCAN ()— Heavy weekend snow up to 30 inches held up logging operations in the Lake Cowichan area Monday. Up to 500 loggers in the Cayuse Beach, Moose Creek, Jordan River, and Hillcrest logging area were affected. Others laid off because of now north of Courtenay are expected to be back at work in the woods in a day or two.

STOP DUMPING

VERNON (Enderby, rancher Len Bawtree told the annual meeting of the North Okanagan bage dumping is creating a menace for ranging cattle. He urged the RCMP be empowered to prosecute instead of the necessity of laying charges by ranchers who usually found the culprits were their neighbors and friends.
